Our Mission

The mission of the Richmond Philharmonic is to promote the art and appreciation of classical orchestral music for audiences of all ages and backgrounds while providing musicians in the Richmond community with the opportunity to display and develop their talents for performance and enjoyment of orchestral music.

Music Director

Dr. Peter Wilson, a violinist who teaches and performs throughout Virginia and Maryland, recently retired as the String Section Commander for "The President's Own" United States Marine Band. He is committed to excellence in leading familiar classics as well as exciting new repertoire.

Musicians

We are teachers, doctors, biologists, historians, engineers -- and quite possibly your neighbors! Since 1972, professional and amateur musicians from across Greater Richmond have rehearsed weekly to prepare a full season of performances. We frequently collaborate with professional soloists and other arts organizations.
