WONDER WOMEN

THE PARTY Modern Luxury San Diego teamed up with Modern Day Wife to celebrate its September issue's Dynamic Women and Women of Style. Hundreds of ladies, and a few dapper gents, convened at FEMX Quarantine in Mission Hills to network, discover goods from various vendors, listen to inspiring speaking panels and watch a live fashion show. THE PEOPLE The Modern Luxury San Diego team—including Editor-in-Chief Allison Mitchell, Group Publisher Ken St. Pierre and Associate Publisher Kelly Cole—joined Modern Day Wife co-founders Meagan Ayres and Meghan Falkoff in enjoying libations by Melograno Cocktails and Snake Oil Cocktail Co., and a grazing table by Hillcrest's Barrel & Board. Partygoers shopped pop-up boutiques from brands like Link x Lou and Chalonne, among others, before taking a seat to listen to conversations with local business leaders, including title sponsor Dr. Steven R. Cohen of Faces Plus. THE PINNACLE A fabulous fashion show highlighted eyewear and apparel from local brands, bringing the night to an energetic and memorable close.
