Hosting a House Party

is a great way to bring friends, colleagues and family members together to learn more about St. Francis Friends of the Poor (SFFP), a New York City non-profit organization that provides hope and permanent homes to nearly 300 formerly homeless people living with severe mental illness.

We encourage your creativity and resourcefulness in hosting a small or large party, which could take place in your home or office, at a restaurant, or at your church or civic organization.

St. Francis Friends of the Poor will provide you with promotional materials, donation/pledge cards, and any guidance you may need to make your event a success.

We will rely on your initiative, contacts, and creativity in moving your house party forward. This includes:

• Thinking about what event will work best for you and identifying your target audience
• Identifying a space
• Brainstorming creative ways to market, create and distribute invitations or e-blasts
• Underwriting the costs associated with the event by asking colleagues/friends/restaurants to co-host and/or help you in planning the logistics and
• Creating an achievable fundraising goal

Your support is greatly appreciated and we look forward to hearing your ideas!

Help St. Francis Friends of the Poor Thrive by Hosting a House Party!

Format
We recommend a two-hour cocktail party, beginning at 6:00 pm or 6:30 pm. However, you know what will work best for your friends and colleagues. Choose a venue where you and your guests will be most comfortable. This could be at your own home, a restaurant/bar, your place of worship or a meet-and-greet at your workplace. You can host the party alone, with a friend or group of friends or a civic/recreational/sport club you belong to. If your home is not large enough to host a house party, consider asking a friend who has a great space for a cocktail party to co-host it with you.

House party events can be as formal or as informal as you wish. They can serve as both a friend raiser and a fundraiser. St. Francis Friends of the Poor is here to support you as a host, whether you want to throw a relaxed get-together, or a more formal event designed for donors who can give at higher levels. Please contact Christina Byrne at cbyrne@stfrancisfriends.org so we can work with you directly to plan and implement a fun and successful event.

Consider setting a fundraising goal for the event and announce it to guests when you ask for their support at the event.

What To Serve
Refreshments can be as simple or as complicated as you like. You could consider seeking help from friends who like to cook, or local restaurants who may be sympathetic to our cause. You could also hire a caterer or provide refreshments yourself.

Who To Invite
Friends, family, colleagues, neighbors, acquaintances - it's up to you to decide who to invite, get out the invitations (mail and/or email) and keep track of who is coming, so you will know how many to prepare for. Follow-up emails and phone calls will definitely increase attendance. You'll find a sample invitation on the next page.

Logistics
Think about directions by car or public transportation and where guests can park, and let them know the plan.

Ask a friend or two to serve as greeters, if needed. They'll answer the door, take coats, make sure people sign in and help collect checks or assist with electronic donations on SFFP's website.

Do let us know about your event, so we can send you the materials you need and see if a SFFP representative can attend the event.
