  o Conversation was had to change the election of officers to February instead of September. This was discussed to allow a new trustee to join the board and nominate themselves as an officer if they desire.
  o President Hoeft discusses the process of amending bylaws and stresses that this action should not be taken lightly as this is the charter which the board and city residents agree upon for a functional and proper governance.
  o Marlene comments that we should not change the bylaws to change officer election dates. There is consensus among the board. No motion made.
President Hoeft also discusses possibility of going above the minimum requirements for Roberts Rules and including justification as to why a motion is made by the trustee who motions to amend bylaws.

President Hoeft commented that the bylaws need to be reviewed once a year. Policy committee will convene to review bylaws and present to board.
