Architecture Month Opportunity
Submit by July 29

Join the American Institute of Architects (AIA) in a month-long celebration of all things architecture. Architecture Month, October 1-31, 2022, is an opportunity to engage the general public around architectural topics including good design, placemaking, and more. AIA Cincinnati plans to leverage our social media to share the work of our members with the wider community. To do this, we need your help! Any AIA member can submit a project for inclusion in this social media campaign using this form. Submission deadline is 5pm EST on Friday, July 29, 2022.

Upcoming Events

JUNE 8
Revit Academy, Intermediate Session 1: Creating and Using Rooms in Revit

Revit, a BIM software, is used by architects, engineers, and contractors to gather and link data on the design, construction, and operation of a building to create a unified, 3D model. The first Intermediate Revit session will explain how to bound rooms with ceilings and floors. 2 LU. To attend all 3 Intermediate Revit sessions, register for the Intermediate Series.
VISION Keynote: Beyond Checking the Box: Community Engagement for Impact

Effectively engaging with communities is critical to ensuring that a project's impact is positive and supports the health, safety, and welfare of those who interact with a project. This session will explore engagement strategies related to affordable housing and community development, and highlight opportunities to increase the value of engagement and move beyond checking a box. 1 LU/HSW.

Cincinnati 2030 District Summit

All Cincinnati 2030 District members, partners and supporters are welcome to the first Cincinnati 2030 District Summit! Educational workshops and case studies throughout the afternoon will focus on solutions related to the District's four pillars (energy, water, transportation, and occupant health). Read more for program details and CEUs for the two sessions.
