

SIGNATURE COCKTAILS

TAIYO £15

roku gin | yuzu | plum wine

The name means 'sun' in Japanese, or 'big ocean.' Let's go with big ocean: it's a cocktail. Conceived in the spirit of navigator William Adams, the 17th century's first Western samurai, whose London office at the East India Company was a few blocks from here. Sailors call going 'overboard' going 'into the drink.'

LET'S. GO. OVERBOARD.

Suggested pairing: steamed tiger prawn bao bun

AQUA VITA £14

sauvonne vodka | banana liqueur | strawberry bitters

The 'good life' had a very special meaning in late 19th century London City East. Just ask Oscar Wilde's 'Dorian Gray.' Put your soul up for sale with a sip of our Aqua Vita. Think of it this way: the next round won't cost you a devil's halfpenny, because your soul's already gone.

Suggested pairing: Smoke cured, vodka-infused North Atlantic salmon

MARKETA £14

maker's mark | roasted pineapple | 1757 rosso

Brick's and Petticoat Lane, world markets of fashion & food was in 1902 'Club Row.' The nexus of a different kind of exchange: flesh-peddling and a different kind of flesh: lions, monkeys, tigers, dogs, cats. A stroll through the PocketSquare Marketa awaits: East London's urban jungle - the City unleashed if you're enough of a tamer to give it a try.

Suggested pairing: candied bacon

PEPYS GOLD £16

enemigo tequila | crème de pêches | china china | almond milk | milk

Oh that Sam Pepys, what a guy. No lactose intolerant he. When 1666's Great Fire of London licked at his heels, he buried his wheels: the round cheeses that like rare wine, were considered as precious as gold. We thought it high time to bring back the 'mold standard.'

Suggested pairing: Lincolnshire poacher smoked cheese

SIGNATURE COCKTAILS

EYRIE £16

macallan 12 year | pear and thyme puree | porter reduction

"Yes, please" People in high places choose Truman's, the Brick Lane brewery, whose beer wets the tongues of the Royal Family, they say. Truman's are also the creators of the world's first 'porter,' which we present here in a reduction, because we love it so madly.

Suggested pairing: salt beef slider

SEDITION £16

hendricks | absinthe | white port | champagne acid | herbal salt

Gin was and is synonymous with the Royal Navy. Scurvy? No problem! Mutiny? Big problem! When officers suspected a diluted supply, they put it to the gunpowder test: if the powder smoked, the gin was thin. If the powder lit, the din certified the gin: at least 114 proof, now known as 'Navy Strength.' (we beg you not to try this at your table)

Suggested pairing: tempura oyster

MI IRIE £14

appleton | Jamaican kombucha | orgeat | lime

Ask an East Londoner, who's creating the City's beat? All they'll do is look around from afrobeat's to reggae, dance hall, hip hop and rap. From Jamaica to the West African coast. East London's own, like Juls: producer, DJ, musician are making the scene at home, and taking it international too. East London isn't a place. It's a club. It's a track. It's a sound. Drop a Mi irie and listen.

Suggested pairing: plantain chips

ANONYMOUS £16

campari | ceylon arrack | palm sugar | burlesque bitters

May we humbly announce: A world first! A 'signature' cocktail that's 'anonymous' or is that just our 'tag'? East London is home/boy/girl to the most celebrated (faceless) signatures of the century: Banksy, Bambi, The Street Elite. Get over yourself, and discover the chill of Anonymity: ego is just edible air.

Suggested pairing: muddled meringue
