DAILY GUIDE

for

Prayerful Bible Reading

Read first thing in the morning.

Let God set the trajectory of your day.

Find a quiet spot.

Seek your own private sanctuary where you can be still before God.

Pray before reading.

Samuel said to the Lord, "Speak for your servant is listening."

- 1 Samuel 3:10

Read all of the scheduled readings at your natural pace.

Avoid the pressure of comprehending everything; instead, focus on meaningful insights.

Be attentive to the Holy Spirit.

Identify one or two profound truths and articulate the one that resonates with you most in a single sentence.

Apply the Word.

Reflect on why God is highlighting certain passages and contemplate the transformative impact they could have on your life. Make a conscious decision to be shaped by the Word of God.

Don't get discouraged.

If you get too far behind to catch up, just start again on today's reading. Accept that complete understanding may elude you, trusting that God's wisdom will be granted in due time. Keep your focus on Jesus, recognizing that the entirety of the Bible revolves around Him and His salvation. Keep looking for God in your day to day life as you carry these scriptures with you throughout the day. He is with you always!

This Biblical exploration follows the scriptures as presented in the New Living Translation (NLT) version of the Bible, however, you may follow this calendar using any version you prefer.

SOAP Journaling

Scripture:

Write out a verse or short passage from the day's readings. Some days, you will feel like God wrote a passage just for you. Your experience is very personal and God has many ways of speaking to us. Trust that however God brings you to a passage, He has a message for you there.

Observation:

Record a couple of sentences about the meaning of the passage. What about the passage seems important to you? What do you believe is the essential biblical message there?

Application:

Write a sentence about how God is leading you to respond to the Scripture. God's Word leads and transforms us. How does God want to work in your life today?

Prayer:

Ask God to help you live out the truth of His Word. Share your heart, and do it in writing. There is something powerful about recording our prayers.

Example

Scripture:

"Let me hear of your unfailing love each morning, for I am trusting in you. Show me where to walk, for I give myself to you." Psalm 143:8

Observation:

The knowledge and experience of God's love enables David to trust God. So David asks God to continue to reveal His great love, day after day. And David knows that the only right response to the love of God is to dedicate himself completely to the Lord.

Application:

I need to be more intentional about seeking the Lord daily. I want to know more of His love and I want to give myself more fully to Him. I am going to set aside time for Scripture and prayer every morning.

Prayer:

Lord, please show me more of your love. I want to know you more and trust you more.
