*Komm Heiliger Geist, BWV 652

Johann Sebastian Bach

Come, Holy Ghost, God and Lord! Be all Thy graces now outpoured
On each believer’s mind and heart; Thy fervent love to them impart.
Lord, by the brightness of Thy light Thou in the faith dost all unite
Of every land and every tongue; This to Thy praise, O Lord, our God, be sung. Hallelujah! Hallelujah!

Glory To God

* Call to Worship

Rejoice with me, people of God.
God has gathered us in from the wilderness.
Rejoice with me, people of God.
God has swept away the darkness of the night.
Rejoice with me, people of God.
Today, there is joy in the presence of the angels.

WELCOME

Convinced of God’s grace, the Church of the Covenant seeks to be a welcoming spiritual home, live God’s inclusive love, express Christ’s compassion, and do justice in the world.

CHILD CARE

Child care is provided for infants, toddlers and children in pre-K in our Crèche, located in the education wing. See an usher for directions. Children from first through fifth grade may join this group after the Blessing of the Backpacks in the worship service. Older students from sixth through twelfth grade will join in the worship service every Sunday and will look forward to youth events on future Sundays.
Call to Confession

Matthew Garrett, Liturgist

Prayer of Confession

Holy God, we turn from you and frequently lose our way. We get ourselves so turned around by temptations that seduce and steal our hearts. We excuse our mistakes and missteps with arguments that just don’t add up. Forgive us. Find us. Restore us as your people. Amen.

Silent Confession of Sin

Declaration of Forgiveness

The mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting. I declare to you, in the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven. May the God of mercy, who forgives you all your sins, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

Thanks be to God. Amen.

* Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father,† and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen, amen.

† Or you may sing: “Glory to the Creator, and to the Christ, Holy Spirit, Three in One;”
Blessing of the Backpacks

Rev. June Begany

Let us pray…

Gracious and Holy God, we pray for the children, youth, students and educators of this faith community. They stand here ready to receive your blessings and they commit themselves to study, learn and educate in the school year ahead. We ask your blessing on each of them.

Loving God, hold us and our prayers.

God of wisdom, we ask your blessing on these backpacks and all that they hold. As these backpacks are carried day after day, may these students and educators be reminded of the love and care of this congregation that surrounds them.

Loving God, hold us and our prayers.

We pray for health and wholeness, fun and growth, surprise, and amazement, for this school year ahead, knowing you will hold us all the way through.

We pray in your name, whom we seek to follow day by day.
Amen.

The Word

Prayer of Illumination

Scripture  Psalms 96 and 98, (selected verses)  OT pages 550-552

O sing to the LORD a new song, for God has done marvelous things.

Let the heavens rejoice, let the earth be glad;
let the sea resound, and all that is in it.

Let the fields be jubilant, let the rivers clap their hands, let the forests and the mountains sing for joy.

Make music to the LORD with the harp, with the harp and the sound of singing.

Gather

We gather to worship God on the Lord’s Day (Sunday) because the Gospels testify that Jesus rose from the dead early on the first day of the week.

Music Notes

This week, we celebrate the return of our Chancel Choir and Beckwith Handbell Choir! To celebrate Covenant’s launch of the Glory to God hymnal, the choir will open worship services this fall with hymns familiar and new.

Felix Bartholdy Mendelssohn (1809-1847) was one of the most prolific composers of choral music during the 19th Century. His first oratorio, St. Paul, was heavily influenced by Mendelssohn’s love for the Passion settings of J.S. Bach. Set in six scenes, this large choral-orchestral work chronicles the conversion of Saul, the disciples preaching Christ’s Gospel, and the final days of Paul’s ministry. “See What Love” is one of the more tender moments in the work, expressing the compassionate love of our Father, in Heaven.

Philip Ledger (1937-2012) was a well-respected church musician who held the esteemed position, Director of the Choir of King’s College, Cambridge for eight years in the late 70s. In this week’s offertory, we experience the text of 19th Century poet
With trumpets and the blast of the ram’s horn, shout for joy before the LORD who reigns.

O sing to the LORD a new song; sing to the LORD, all the earth.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God!

Anthem

See What Love

See what love hath the Father bestowed on us in His goodness, that we should be called God’s own children.

Believing God Calls Us To Be Peacemakers

Since a gunman opened fire at Sandy Hook Elementary School on December 14, 2012, killing 26 people, 20 of them children; 1,960 people in Cuyahoga County have been killed by guns. Since last month, 20 more individuals have died by gun violence in Cuyahoga County.

Prayer Against Gun Violence

Includes ringing of the Prayer Bell for those impacted by gun violence (20 more individuals in Cuyahoga County died from gun violence in August).

Ringing of the Prayer Bell.
The Lord’s Prayer:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors;
and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever, Amen

Invitation to Offering

As a shepherd searches for a lost sheep,
as a woman searches for a lost coin,
God sees us out to save us.
With gratitude and joy,
let us offer our lives to the Lord.

Offertory

Loving Shepherd of Thy Sheep

Loving Shepherd of thy sheep, keep thy lamb, in safety keep;
Nothing can thy power withstand, none can pluck me from thy hand.
I would praise thee every day, gladly all thy will obey,
Like thy blessed ones above happy in thy precious love.

Loving Shepherd, ever near, teachy thy lamb thy voice to hear;
Suffer not my steps to stray from the straight and narrow way.
Where thou leadest I would go, walking in thy steps below,
Till before my Father’s throne I shall know as I am known.

* Doxology

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Christ, all people here below;
Praise Holy Spirit evermore;
Praise Triune God, whom we adore. Amen.
Prayer of Thanksgiving

Holy God, how often we take for granted all that we have. How often we fail to recognize how blessed we are. Take these gifts we give in response to your generosity and use them to further Christ’s mission and ministry in a hurting world. Amen.

Hymnal Dedication –

Music is an integral part of the work of the people of God…

To the choir, ensembles and musicians: Do you promise to use your gift of song, of harmony, of weaving together instruments and voices as an offering to God of praise and thanksgiving? We do, by the grace of God.

To the congregation: Do you promise to add your voice to the hymns we sing? Will you sing with honesty and humility whether the song is old or new, comforting or challenging, triumphant or contemplative? We will by the grace of God.

We present these hymnals to the glory of God and for service in the life of this congregation. Let us pray:

Eternal God, we thank you for the gifts of music and song through which creation has offered you praise and thanksgiving, confession and lament, prayers and petitions. May this new hymnal inspire our own songs in times of joy and sorrow. Enable us to sing in one voice as your gathered people, and to join in harmony with all who worship you. By your grace, may the words and melodies shape our faith for years to come, and in ways that forever give glory to you, the Triune God. Amen.

Farewell to Pastor June
Though we are sad to see her go, we are happy she is beginning a new chapter in her life. Let’s send her off with a memory book of our Covenant family. June has requested you include a photo with your favorite bible verse and farewell message. All will be gathered in a scrap book to give to June. Send electronically to Jean Ganger at jean.ganger@juno.com or drop in the deacons’ mail box in the church office. Sizes up to 8 1/2” x 11” will fit in our book. We can take a photo of you if you’d like or leave out - the Bible verse and personal message are most meaningful.

The Saturday Morning Tutoring program kicks off Saturday September 17 at 10am.
How can you help? First, we need tutors. You decide what grade and subject best suit you. We need help in the parking lot from 9:15 – 10 and at noon. We also need people from 10:30-11:30 to distribute snacks. We can use used books for elementary age students and school supplies (Spiral notebooks, Mechanical Pencils and Binders). Monetary donations are also welcome. There is a box in the church office where items can be dropped. Tutoring will run September 17 – October 15 and October 29 -November 19.

All Church Potluck Picnic
The Deacons are hosting a Potluck Picnic TODAY, Sunday, September 11th. The picnic and the flowers are in memory of Thelma Everhart’s passing on September 5th, 2021, by the Everhart family. The picnic will be held on the lower patio (weather permitting) immediately after worship. Please bring a side dish for everyone to share.

Voter Information and Registration at the Church Picnic THIS SUNDAY
Erich Stubbs, Session member Erica Stubbs’ father, from the Board of Elections will be available at the church picnic this Sunday to answer any questions that students, young adults and others may have about registering for the upcoming elections in November. The deadline to register is October 11. There will also be a Hip-Hop VOTER Registration Bus on site in the parking lot for those who would like to register on Sunday. Come eat, enjoy the company of others and get ready to participate in our democracy this fall!

Blessing of the Backpacks and More!
Join us on TODAY, September 11th, for 10 am worship and bring your backpacks to receive a special blessing at the start of the school year.
Let Us Hear from You

Please sign the red guest register pads in the pews. This will help us keep track of visitors’ and members’ current emails, addresses, and phone numbers. Thank you.

The topic is Celebrating Sabbath. Ultimately, Sabbath reminds us to honor God who honors us by giving us a day each week to reset our pace, our priorities, and our lives. Please contact Mary Anne Bromelmeier (maryannebromelmeier@yahoo.com) if you would like to learn more or to join this group. Read more in the current E-news.

Covenant is Looking to Fill Two Part-Time Positions

Are you looking for a part-time position doing meaningful ministry with children, youth or young adults? The Church of the Covenant is looking for a Coordinator of Ministry to Students and Young Adults, as well as a Christian Educator of Children and Youth. Please check our website CovenantWeb.org for more information. Spread the word to anyone you know who might be a good fit for the Covenant staff!

Enhance Your Worship Listening Experience

If you would like to enhance your listening experience feel free to use one of our personal earphone devices to enjoy additional clarity of sound. Personal listening devices are available from our ushers, just inside the narthex entrance (near Euclid Ave.).
SINGING and RINGING: Musical Opportunities for ALL!

We are excited to resume music ensembles at Covenant in September including the Covenant Choir, Beckwith Handbell Choir, and Music for Children and Youth. Choir and Handbell rehearsals resumed on Thursday, September 8 (handbells, 6:30pm; choir, 7:30pm), and we still have plenty of bells and music to go around! This is a perfect time to join. If you are interested in participating in these ensembles, would like more information, or would like to share another musical gift, please reach out to any of our music staff members, Matthew Garrett, Michael Peters, or Jonathan Moyer: music@covenantweb.org.

Sunday Seminar Plans

September 18th, 11:30 am in the sanctuary
Sing Your Heart Out at Covenant Hymn Sing!
Gather with our Covenant Community to raise your voice in songs of faith, prayer, hope, and praise. Join music staff members Matthew Garrett and Jonathan Moyer as we sing, uncover Presbyterian hymnody leading up to our new Glory to God hymnals, sing, hear the soul-filled words of great American composer and song-leader Alice Parker, and—you guessed it—sing! We’ll incorporate beloved favorite hymns, try some newer tunes, and you’ll have an opportunity to make requests from the new hymnals. Join us this Sunday and sing your heart out!

September 25, 11:30 am in Dowd Commons
Americans Making Immigrants Safe (AMIS)
The mission of AMIS is to inspire hope and contribute to the well-being of immigrants and families as they seek legal status in the United States by assisting with resources for legal services, education, basic living expenses, and self-sufficiency. Anne Hill, President of AMIS, and Brian Hoffman, Immigration Attorney, will give the presentation and lead the discussion.

October 2, 11:30 am in Dowd Commons
Understanding Mental Illness – Matt Gesicki, NAMI Greater Cleveland
Did you know that 1 in 4 adults experience a diagnosable mental health disorder in a given year? Mental illness can happen to anyone regardless of age, race, religion or income; it often strikes individuals in the prime of their lives. The presentation covers stigma and misconceptions about mental illness, self-care and caregiving, and strategies for communicating better with individuals with mental illness.

Be a Mentor! Change a Life.
Ready to witness God’s transforming spirit? Be a mentor with UPCaM’s Rebekah’s Circle! Welcome young women from Tri-C Metro Campus and Cleveland State University and celebrate their hopes and big dreams. Each circle is a fast six weeks, Tuesdays, Sept. 13 – Oct. 18, 6-7:30 pm at Trinity Cathedral, Cleveland. A required Mentor Training is Sept. 6, 5-7 pm. Learn more at www.upcam.org.

Religion After Roe:
The Theological and Religious Studies department at John Carroll is sponsoring a conversation with scholars from the Jewish, Muslim and Christian traditions. How do their traditions understand abortion and how do we live as people of faith in a diverse and pluralistic society? Monday, September 19 at 7:00 p.m.

Contemplative Prayer Practice
You are invited to attend talks given by Fr. Laurence Freeman, a Benedictine monk and Director of the World Community for Christian Meditation. Fr. Freeman will be in Cleveland October 9 - 12 for a retreat and talks on how contemplative prayer can make a difference in our work, ministry and stressed and fractured world. He will be offering three talks on October 12, two of which will be at Church of the Covenant.

Authentic Leadership: Cleveland Institute of Music, Mixon Hall, 7:30 - 9:30 a.m.
Spirituality in a Secular Age: Church of the Covenant, 1:00 - 3:00 p.m.
Unified Consciousness: Church of the Covenant, 6:00 - 8:00 p.m.
The Ministry of Faith Formation (MoFF) is excited for the dedication of our NEW Glory to God hymnals this Sunday, September 11th! Thank you to all the Covenant community members who dedicated hymnals in honor and in memory of special people. A list of dedications for this Sunday may be found below. If you would still like to dedicate one or more hymnals, we will continue to take those requests, and another formal dedication opportunity will be scheduled later this fall. Contact music@covenantweb.org or call the church office (216) 421-0482 for more information.

Personal Hymnal Copies
The church office will continue to take orders if members wish to purchase personal copies for use at home. Members wishing to own one or more hard copies of Glory to God may purchase one for $25, including shipping. Orders for personal copies will be taken through September 30, 2022, using an online form (HERE), or by obtaining a form in the church office. Hymnals will be received at the church, and members will be notified when they are available for pick up. Members wishing to obtain a digital copy of the hymnal for their iPad tablet, may search for “Glory to God Hymnal” in the Apple App Store. The free download includes the pew version of all 235 public domain hymns. Additional in-app purchases allow you to add copyrighted hymns, a large-print edition, and other versions of the hymnal.

You may submit payment through the church office or on our church website, through Realm. To access online giving, click THIS LINK to go to Covenant’s “Giving” webpage. At the bottom of the page, click the “Make a Donation” button, which will take you into Realm, our online giving portal. You may select “Hymnal” from the drop-down Fund menu, and your contribution will be documented with Este Pozza, our church finance manager. If you want to write a check, please make it payable to “The Church of the Covenant” and include “New Hymnal” in the memo line of the check.
