Executive Board: Education Director

Mom2Mom Global, a nonprofit organization dedicated to providing breastfeeding peer support, education, and advocacy to military families, seeks a qualified candidate for the Executive Board position of Education Director. The annual operating budget for Mom2Mom Global is approximately $20,000. This is a volunteer position, as are all leadership positions within Mom2Mom Global, in keeping with our commitment to keep overhead costs as low as possible. Mom2Mom Global is committed to diversity, equity, and inclusivity, and welcomes candidates from a variety of backgrounds, cultures, and personal experiences. All candidates must have a great understanding and practice of equity, diversity, and inclusivity that aligns with Mom2Mom Global's values.

Qualified candidates must be DOD ID cardholders, be knowledgeable about human lactation and breastfeeding support, possess a lactation credential; and be familiar with military culture, protocols, and realities of military life. Bachelor’s degree and experience in human lactation, nursing, or education-related fields preferred.

Qualified candidates must be able to work independently and to fully participate in a collaborative leadership team of strong-minded individuals, to express themselves in writing and in person with both candor and tact, and be creative, imaginative, and innovative. Candidates must also be familiar and comfortable with working remotely using cloud technology and organizational platforms. The Executive Board is the governing body and is responsible for organizational operations, oversight, and activities.
