MMF-US at SXSW MUSIC CONFERENCE in AUSTIN, TX:

SXSW

RECAP of MANAGERS PEER GROUP MEETING at SXSW on MARCH 16 in Austin, Texas
Music Managers Forum-US presented a Managers Peer Group Meeting during SXSW at the Austin Convention Center on Thursday, March 16. Over thirty-five music managers from Argentina, United Kingdom, Germany, Canada, Spain, Australia and the USA participated. Everyone engaged in discussions concerning a variety of issues significant to music managers in a closed-door setting.
A major topic concerned USA work visas and the challenges facing many artist-clients applying to enter the USA, given recent tighter controls and lack of clarity and understanding for entry. Representatives from the United Kingdom and Australia cited specific examples of recent difficulties. The concern facing music managers representing artists from the United States is that other countries may consider mirroring US policy and standards, making it more difficult for US-based artists to travel to specific countries and earn income through musical endeavors.

Another topic of discussion was professional development for music managers and their artist-clients to maintain sustainable careers. Participants complained how revenue streams for artists are reduced compared to historical levels, given paltry royalty rates for music performances and usage. The group also welcomed a number of representatives offering an assortment of new tools and services for artist-fan-manager engagement.

Music Managers Forum-US thanks our long-time board members Steven Scharf & Stephen Bond Garvan who hosted the managers peer group meeting at SXSW. We encourage MMF-US members to register for SXSW and attend next year's peer group meeting, and traditional event that takes place annually for the past several years.
