Halloween Costume Poll Results

The last issue of History Hub asked you to pick one of Ephraim's historic personalities as inspiration for a Halloween costume.

Grab your rolling pins and aprons, folks, because Hilda Paschke, Ephraim's famed baker, was the hands-down favorite in the EHF survey, Hilda captured 20% of 46 votes. Crooner Eddy Valentine was a few "notes" behind with 15%.

Pictured above: An historical rendering of Hilda Paschke by theatrical costume designer Karin Kopishke, 2011. Kopishke first collaborated with the Gibraltar Historical Association, and later the EHF, to create (click to follow link) "Garments of our Foundation: Pioneering Door County Women and Their Clothing". The Paschke rendering and several others are in the permanent collection of the Ephraim Historical Foundation.

Tram Tours

Thanks to EHF Guides Tad Dukehart, Marcella Fults, Kathy Pentler, Jim Reeve and Bonnie Rock. Together, they donated over 150 hours to the Foundation.

Guides led 58 tram tours in 2021. 215 people participated. Participation reflects a 15% decline from the 8-year-average but an increase in the number of participants compared to 2017 & 2018.

In 2021, the EHF collected $695 in tram tour fees. This sum is nearly "on the nose" for the 8-year-average of tram tour fees ($692.25).

2019 (tram out of service), 2020 (pandemic) data was not included in the 8-year-average.

Fifty-eight people participated in Walking Tours in 2021. This number is similar to 2019 (52) but significantly lower than the 8-year-average (181). In summer 2021, the Moravian Church was not open to the public due to Covid-19. Iverson Tours, which included a visit inside the church, were not offered. By fall, the EHF was able to schedule three MORAVIAN STREET STROLLS which included short visits inside the church and the Iverson House. Forty-three people attended the fall walking tours. EHF Guide Bonnie Rock and EHF Educator Kathleen Harris collaborated, and switched up content and time. 2022 walking tours will continue to evolve but will always stand firmly on the foundation of Ephraim’s historic legacy.
