2022 Equity Initiative Programming

Register here. Watch for programming updates.

- Monday, August 22, 2022, 6-7:30 pm - The next generation of LWVPA is here! Building youth engagement and inclusive intergenerational membership. Co-facilitator Giselle Concepcion will be joined by a panel of young civic leaders to explore the challenges and opportunities for civic engagement across the generations, the benefit of new perspectives and leadership taking a place and moving the LWV forward.

- Monday September 19, 2022, 6-7:30 pm - Understanding Microaggressions. A microaggression is a subtle behavior, conscious or unconscious, generally directed at members of marginalized groups with hostile or harmful effects. Bias towards others is at the root of a microaggression. These careless daily assaults target and cause harm to a person's identity, wellbeing and sense of belonging in society. Join us to take a deep dive into this topic. How can we learn to identify and interrupt microaggressions in ourselves and others? How can we learn to communicate in a more inclusive and caring way?
(We meet on the third Monday in observance of Rosh Hashanah, on Sept. 26.)
- Monday October 24, 2022, 6-7:30 pm - Equity Initiative Annual Review and Needs Assessment.
