THE LIVE EVENT RECEPTION

When you log in you will be brought to the reception page. This has some general event info, the schedule, and sponsor details.

Click on the Reception icon any time you want to come back to the full schedule which you will find under the event description.

Main Event Chat
You can engage with other attendees and event hosts in the Event Chat here. If you need any help, let us know in the chat. Please note chat messages are public. Chat is only monitored when the event is live.

Transforming Transportation 2021: Reimagining Safe And Resilient Mobility For Recovery
Hosted by Catapult Live

Welcome
Welcome to Transforming Transportation 2021: Reimagining Safe and Resilient Mobility for Recovery.

The live, all-virtual three-day event will bring together sustainable mobility world leaders from the public, private, academic, and civil.
BUILD YOUR PROFILE

Your profile is based on the information you provide at registration, however you can add additional information and a profile picture if you wish. You can do this just after you register by clicking here.

Once the event is live you can update your profile by clicking the circle with your initials in it on the top right-hand corner and selecting Edit Profile.

If you would like to include your company name, you can put your full name in the first name box and company in the surname box and it will appear as follows:

Fran Hogan - Catapult
The Live Event

Main Stage

From the Reception Page you can go to the Main Stage by clicking here.

You will know there is content on the Main Stage when you can see the Live symbol.

When the Main Stage is live it will also appear in the What's Happening Now section on the reception page. You can also click on this to Go to the Main Stage.

Main Stage Chat

The Main Stage has its own specific chat function which can be used for comments and questions relating to the main stage content. If there is a Q&A element, speakers will be able to see your questions here.
You can find sessions by clicking the Technical Session icon here.

You will know there are Technical Sessions taking place when you can see the Now symbol.

Technical Sessions will appear on the Sessions page 5 minutes before they are due to start. Click on the Technical Session image to join. You can search for a specific session using the search bar here.

Technical Session Chat
Each Technical Session also has its own specific chat function which can be used for comments and questions relating to the session content. If there is a Q&A element, speakers will be able to see your questions here.
In the Networking area you can hit the Ready button to be matched with another attendee for a quick video chat.

Extending the Networking Session
You can extend the meeting by clicking the Extend button. As the button is clicked, the other participant will receive a notification to confirm if they wish to extend the meeting.

If you wish to leave the call, hit the Leave button. This will appear 30 seconds into the call.

If you want to share your contact information with the person you are talking to, hit the Connect button. If you both hit Connect your contact details will be shared with each other.
On the right-hand side you will see the People button. You can use the Search function to find specific people.

The green dot indicates that person is currently online.

Click on the name of the person if you wish to invite them to a private video call or to send them a private message.

You can see your direct messages here.
The Expo Area is where you can find the virtual exhibitor booths. Exhibitors could have live chat in the booth, or they can share a video or presentation. You can search for a specific exhibitor here.

Once you’re in the booth, you can chat to the exhibitor using the chat function here.

If there is no one in the booth and you would like some more information you can send them your contact details by clicking on the Register Interest button.
Here are some top tips to make the most of your experience. You can find these on the reception page in the live event.

- Use Chrome.
- Make sure your adblockers are off.
- If you would like your profile to show your face, click on your initials in the top-right corner to access your profile, fill in your details, and upload a photo.
- Use the chat on the right-hand side to connect with other attendees and share your thoughts. There is an event-wide chat, as well as a chat for each individual session. Please note, this is visible to everyone attending the event.
- Share your experience on social media using #TTDC21.
- If you are having trouble seeing or hearing content, please refresh the page.
- If the problem continues, please let us know by emailing us at: ellen@thisiscatapult.com
