We connect everyone to the dynamic history, cultures, and art of Asian Pacific Americans through vivid storytelling and inspiring experiences to advance racial and social equity.

@winglukemuseum

CHANGE SERVICE REQUESTED

719 South King Street
Seattle, WA 98104
wingluke.org
206.623.5124
Thursday–Sunday, 10am–5pm
Closed Monday through Wednesday

Reorient: Journeys Through Art and Healing

ON DISPLAY FRIDAY JUNE 10TH

In our upcoming exhibit, art and history come together to tell a multidimensional story about humanity. Art is a catalyst for healing cultural pain, both personal and collective. Artists Victor Kai Wang, Suchitra Mattai, Tuan Nguyen, and Jean Nagai address stories of immigration where art is a sanctuary, resulting in focused innovation. They speak through their works about histories and heritage, using non-traditional media and configuring materials in new ways. This exhibit will be available until 5/14/2023.

Learn more at www.wingluke.org/reorient

Summer Youth Programs

TEENSWAY
Starting this April, our free middle-school art program kicks off in partnership with the Seattle Asian American Film Festival with special focus on the art of animation! Registration is now open for our April-June Program. To register and learn more visit wingluke.org/teensway or email ehalladay@wingluke.org

SUMMER CAMP
In-person summer camps are back in July and August with three different themed camps for creative explorers ages 6 to 12. Kids make museum spaces their own as they connect with history and have guided creative fun in Seattle’s Chinatown-International District. Histories, traditions, and cultures collide this summer as we explore the museum in unexplored and engaging ways. For more information or to register visit wingluke.org/summercamp or email ehalladay@wingluke.org

Camp Bruce Lee Scholarships are available-email us for more information.

SPRING TOUR SEASON – BACK IN-PERSON!

Redlining Heritage Trail: Neighborhood Drop-In Tour
SATURDAYS, APRIL–MAY, 11:30AM–1PM PDT

Despite Seattle’s liberal reputation, the city’s history of redlining tells another story - one that still resonates today as we continue to explore themes of gentrification and displacement. Take a walk with us to hear the stories of home and to celebrate BIPOC (Black, Indigenous, and People of Color) communities that are currently and were historically marginalized in Seattle. Please email ddy@wingluke.org for more information.

The Rice Stuff Tour
SELECT FRIDAYS, APRIL–JUNE, 4:30PM PDT

Registration is open for our most comforting food tour with a familiar friend from our household pantry! Join us for The Rice Stuff – rice can be prepared in so many ways: savory, sweet, sticky, crispy. Soup, dessert, or the main course? It is always there to match your mood. Experience stories of survival, joy, and memory making over the generations. Please email tours@wingluke.org for more information.

Upcoming Dates: April 1, 15 & 29; May 6 & 20; June 3 & 17

ON DISPLAY FRIDAY JUNE 10TH

Artwork: “Crystal Rainbow” by Victor Kai Wang

Reorient: Journeys Through Art and Healing

NEW EXHIBIT

Reorient: Journeys Through Art and Healing

ON DISPLAY FRIDAY JUNE 10TH

In our upcoming exhibit, art and history come together to tell a multidimensional story about humanity. Art is a catalyst for healing cultural pain, both personal and collective. Artists Victor Kai Wang, Suchitra Mattai, Tuan Nguyen, and Jean Nagai address stories of immigration where art is a sanctuary, resulting in focused innovation. They speak through their works about histories and heritage, using non-traditional media and configuring materials in new ways. This exhibit will be available until 5/14/2023.

Learn more at www.wingluke.org/reorient

NEW EXHIBIT

Reorient: Journeys Through Art and Healing

ON DISPLAY FRIDAY JUNE 10TH

In our upcoming exhibit, art and history come together to tell a multidimensional story about humanity. Art is a catalyst for healing cultural pain, both personal and collective. Artists Victor Kai Wang, Suchitra Mattai, Tuan Nguyen, and Jean Nagai address stories of immigration where art is a sanctuary, resulting in focused innovation. They speak through their works about histories and heritage, using non-traditional media and configuring materials in new ways. This exhibit will be available until 5/14/2023.

Learn more at www.wingluke.org/reorient

BOOK-O-RAMA VIRTUAL EVENT

STORIES OF MOTHERS AND MOTHERING

Join us for a moving discussion about new books on motherhood and mothering with local writers Angela Garbes, author of Like a Mother (2018) and Essential Labor: Mothering as Social Change (2022) and Putsata Reang, author of Me and Mo: A Memoir (2022). Moderated by Kaiti Matsui.

Follow us on social media @winglukemuseum or join our emailing list on wingluke.org for registration details to join this virtual program. Enjoy 15% off Book-O-Rama titles through May 31, 2022.*
April to June 2022

All listed events hosted online unless otherwise stated. Follow us on social media @winglukemuseum for updates and event details or join our newsletter at www.wingluke.org for monthly event announcements.

WHAT’S HAPPENING

Key: 🔴 = Facebook, 🌐 = Zoom

APRIL

7

SEATTLE ARTS & LECTURES: DON MEE CHOI
THURSDAY, APRIL 7
SAL presents an in-person and virtual conversation with South Korean author Don Mee Choi, author of DMZ Colony (Wave Books, 2020), which won the 2020 National Book Award. It was also a finalist for the 2021 T.S. Eliot Four Quarters Prize. Her other books include Handy War (Wave Books, 2016), The Morning News Is Exciting (Action Books, 2010), and several pamphlets of poems and essays. Visit lectures.org for information about tickets and upcoming talks.

16

TUONG LAI: OUR JOURNEY CONTINUES
SATURDAY, APRIL 16, 2-3PM PDT
As a continuation of a conversation stemming from a past virtual food tour, join us for an in-person panel talk with Vietnamese American creatives, Bae Nguyen of Phin, Tan & Niewie Nguyen of Souven'rit, and Oliver Vy Nguyen as they explore what it means to show up Vietnamese in their life and work. In-person panel talk, RSVP here: bit.ly/3KXTzse. For more info please email ddy@wingluke.org.

23

EMPOWERED: VOICES OF WOMEN FROM MYANMAR
SATURDAY, APRIL 23, 5PM PDT
Join us for a panel discussion with women who have opposed the Myanmar/Burma coup. Hear their stories first hand and learn how theirs and others have been impacted. Panelists include H.E. Suansma Sae, a National Unity Government’s Minister of Women, Children and a former student activist, Dr. Ma Thida, a surgeon, writer and former political prisoner, and Yasmin Ullah, a Rohingya-Canadian women who formerly served as the president of the Rohingya Human Rights Network. Moderated by Pwint Htun, the founder and president of Mobilizing Myanmar.

MAY

Asian American, Native Hawaiian, Pacific Islander Heritage Month

7

GERARD TSUTAKAWA CLOSING RECEPTION
SATURDAY, MAY 7, 3PM-5PM PDT, MEMBERS ONLY
Please join us at this closing reception with Gerard Tsutakawa and curator Rachael Kitagawa for a final opportunity to see the show.

TOWN HALL SEATTLE: PETER BACHO
WEDNESDAY, MAY 18, 7:30PM PDT
Wing Luke Museum co-presents a Town Hall conversation with novelist Peter Bacho on his new memoir Uncle Rico’s Encore: Mostly True Stories of Filipino Seattle. This program will be on-site at Town Hall Seattle (611 W 5th Ave, Seattle WA 98101 – West Entrance) and available virtually. For more information about the upcoming talk, visit townhallseattle.org.

BOOK-O-RAMA VIRTUAL EVENT: STORIES OF MOTHERS AND MOTHERING
SATURDAY, MAY 21, 11AM-12PM PDT
See flip side for event details.

JUNE

REORIENT: JOURNEYS THROUGH ART AND HEALING MEMBERS PREVIEW
THURSDAY, JUNE 2, 11AM PDT
Mo’olelo Moments with Anakā Kalei
THURSDAY, MAY 5, 11AM PDT
Nurse Mommies are the Best by Annie Cheng
THURSDAY, JUNE 2, 11AM PDT
Startbug by Cindy Wong

EXHIBIT OPENING: REORIENT: JOURNEYS THROUGH ART AND HEALING
FRIDAY, JUNE 10
The first day for public viewing of the exhibit in the George Tsutakawa Art Gallery.

After Hours Trivia

Dust off those trivia hats and sign up for our monthly AAPI-themed trivia nights! Play from home via Zoom and Crowdpurr. Tickets available on a sliding scale.

Upcoming Dates:
TUESDAY, APRIL 27, 5:30PM PDT
TUESDAY, MAY 31, 5:30PM PDT
TUESDAY, JUNE 28, 5:30PM PDT

Need a PLAIN-TEXT version of this calendar? Download online at https://bit.ly/3DdESib

*20% off Book-O-Rama titles does not apply to previous purchases or combine with other discounts.

10

For more information on events and programs, visit our calendar on wingluke.org

G O P A P P E R L E S S ! We’re always looking for ways to minimize our impact on the environment and reduce waste, which is why we’ve decided to launch a new way of receiving updates about our museum’s programs and events. Follow the QR code for more info. Find your Finder Number under your address.