Position: Event Volunteer

Description: The Wing Luke Museum seeks friendly volunteers for its 5th annual House Party on Saturday, September 17th. House Party is a unique after-hours showcase of local AANHPI + QTBIPOC artists, performers, and community members at the Wing Luke Museum!

About the museum: The Wing Luke Museum is the nation’s only pan-Asian Pacific American museum and is located in Seattle’s Chinatown-International District. The museum’s mission is “to connect everyone to the rich history, dynamic cultures and art of the Asian Pacific Americans through vivid storytelling and inspiring experiences to advance racial and social equity.”

Positions:
- Setup: Set up tables, chairs, and assist artists/performers with their activations
- Greeters: Welcome attendees to The Wing and direct them to check-in and stamp wrists for re-entry
- Door/Gallery Monitors: Answer basic questions about navigating the museum and keep an eye on museum objects.
- Floaters: Move through museum spaces to alert staff about messes or other issues; check on other volunteers.
- Cleanup: Breakdown tables & chairs, take trash & recycling to dumpsters, sweep, prep museum for Sunday morning opening
- Raffle Ticket Sellers and more event-specific position needs will be determined closer to the date
