Comments on PLN2012-00276 Landslide Repair at 8th St Montara

3. Regular Agenda 7:30 – 9:00

Candidate Forum for SMC Harbor District – League of Women Voters moderates.

Each of 6 candidates for Harbor Commission makes brief introductory statement followed by Q&A from public through moderator, followed by closing statement from each candidate. There are 3 Harbor Commission seats on the November ballot.

1. Public Comment 9:00

Leonard Woren: This particular LWV moderator does not ask the hard questions – read 3 questions he submitted that were ignored.

First Flush volunteers needed, contact Karissa at RCD 712-7765. Training session on Oct. 9.

4. Council Activity

Lisa: Research on Harbor District has run out of community sources for documents. Told by District Manager to come to Oyster Point District offices to review paper documents on site, or pay 25 cents per page for copies. Has appointment for Friday morning. Would like authorization for $50 max for records request: Pillar Point Harbor Architectural Guidelines, EIR conditions/mitigation and other useful references not otherwise available to the public.
No council action taken.

Bill: Supervisor Horsley will attend next regularly scheduled MCC meeting to provide an update on Highway 1 Action Plan and Phase 2 of the study, and the Transportation Authority grant that was submitted in June as well as talk about future plans for the Parallel Trail. Not known whether Steve Monowitz will also attend.
