

For immediate release — January 29, 1996

MidCoast Community Council Special Meeting

The MidCoast Community Council will hold its annual retreat on Sunday, February 11, 1996 at Montara Gardens from 9am to 4 pm. During this special meeting, the council will focus on goals and objectives for 1996, streamlining its operations and improving its relationship with the community. Specific topics will include

- How and where should meeting agendas be posted?
- To what extent should old business be conducted without prior posted details?
- What is the role of council subcommittees and how can the council be more supportive of subcommittee volunteers?
- What relationship should exist between the MidCoast Community Council and the Half Moon Bay City Council?

The public is invited to come and share their ideas. Members of council subcommittees will present informal progress reports and outline future activities in the hours between 11am and 1 pm. Montara Gardens is located at 496 6th Street, Montara. For more information, contact April Vargas at 728-5215.