

QUESTIONS FOR MIDCOAST COMMUNITY COUNCIL CANDIDATES
Candidate Forum - October 27, 1993

1. Being a Councilmember requires a substantial personal commitment. How much time do you believe will be necessary for you to be effective, and can you make that commitment?
2. Lacking staff, it has been incumbent on Councilmembers to take the lead on important community issues. Are there any specific issues you would like to pursue if elected?
3. The Council's highest priority is increasing community input. How would you increase outreach?
4. What is your vision of development on the Coast? And, how would you suggest the County and community balance economic interests with development impacts?
5. Please comment on the possible expansion of Highways 1 and 92 and the effects thereof. What role do you see for the MidCoast Council in these issues?
6. Water is a limited resource on the coastside. How would you balance the demand for growth with the limited supply of water?

7. Public Soling →

Notes:

- A. Program will begin with a 3 minute opening statement per candidate.
- B. Answers to questions will be limited to 2 minutes each.
- C. Following the set questions, public questions to the candidates will be entertained.
