

Hidden Gems of Puglia for 2

Discover the hidden gems of Salento, Puglia, one of Italy's most enchanting and undiscovered regions, with a 5-night stay at a luxurious boutique hotel in a centuries-old Palazzo in the heart of Nardò. This charming baroque, historic town captures the unspoiled beauty of southern Italy, providing an idyllic retreat for two in an elegant and intimate setting.

Puglia, often called Italy's "undiscovered gem," remains blissfully untouched by mass tourism, offering an authentic experience of Italian life. Here, you'll find breathtaking coastal landscapes with turquoise waters, amazing beach clubs, ancient towns brimming with history, and world-class cuisine without the crowds. At the Palazzo, you'll stay in elegant accommodations showcasing timeless Italian craftsmanship and antique frescoes, thoughtfully complemented by the owner's unique art collections. The owners, a world-renowned Parisian chef and his wife, an avid art collector, warmly share their passion for art with guests through their thoughtfully curated collection displayed throughout the property.

Each morning begins with a daily breakfast featuring the freshest local ingredients and flavors that define the region. One evening, savor a chef-prepared dinner at a renowned local restaurant, where you'll indulge in the culinary artistry of Puglia with dishes inspired by generations of tradition and paired with an exquisite regional wine.
