Starting at the fire pit, make your way east.

? You'll see two benches, under one which you'll feast.

Head to the hawk's nest, says this fable.

? Treasure is found under a big picnic table.

East of the den is a long bench used to rest.

? Look to your right and you'll pass this test.

There is a sign of our friend, the little brown bat.

? Reach down below, it's as simple as that.

At the stormwater outfalls, you'll see a big sign.

? Look to the left and the stars will align.

The east edge of our land has a sign marked

? "Dead End". On a log on the ground, you will find a small friend.

? Just beyond where the tall grass grows wild, a wood bench appears with your treasure filed.

? From the boardwalk you'll see many "tails of a cat", to find what you seek, you must take a step back.

? On a small hiking loop is the "King of the Hill".
? By some rocks on the side, find some treasure you will.
