PELICAN CLUB Jupiter

CULINARY Excellence

In 1890, Maxwell Lessing laid the foundation for what would become Lessing's Hospitality Group by introducing New York City's first convenient lunch counter. This innovation quickly became a cornerstone for the city's bustling workforce, driven by Maxwell's pioneering spirit and dedication to exceptional service.

Maxwell's vision extended beyond just serving meals; he aimed to create social hubs where guests could enjoy quality, affordable food in a fast-paced environment. By the late 1920s, Lessing's expanded into iconic locations like the Woolworth Building and the New York Stock Exchange, solidifying its reputation for quality and reliability.

Today, Lessing's Hospitality Group continues to build on Maxwell's legacy. Expanding from New York City's historic roots to Florida's vibrant landscapes, they showcase a commitment to quality and individualized offerings for every location and occasion.

The Lessing's restaurant portfolio includes Beacon, Topside, and Lucky Shuck in the heart of Jupiter at Charlie and Joe's at Love Street. These establishments offer unique dining experiences, featuring menus that highlight local flavors and fresh ingredients, creating a community-centric atmosphere that resonates with both locals and visitors.

Lessing's catering services include prestigious venues such as The Pelican Club, The Kravis Center, and the Crane Club. The Pelican Club in Jupiter offers stunning waterfront views and versatile event spaces ideal for weddings and special events. The Kravis Center in West Palm Beach, a premier performing arts venue, provides exceptional facilities for corporate events, galas, and large-scale celebrations. The Crane Club at Tesoro combines luxury with functionality, perfect for weddings, social, and corporate events.

Looking ahead, Lessing's is excited to continue expanding their footprint in Florida. Their focus remains on culinary excellence and personalized service, ensuring every Lessing's event exceeds expectations and creates unforgettable moments for their guests. With a commitment to quality and a deep understanding of the local market, Lessing's aims to bring their renowned hospitality to more locations, enhancing Florida's dining and event landscape with their distinctive offerings.
