

Scope & focus

These two circles help you explore your first questions & thoughts about the life-centered design project you will be working on.

- Write the question you have in the small circle on a Post-it.
- Explore the nature/ planet side of the question, write down what comes to mind in the top half.
- Explore the human/ society side of the question, write down what comes to mind bottom half.

