JMG is offering virtual financial literacy training for teens and young adults supported by the foster care system. The Opportunity Passport® program personal finance training helps young people gain skills related to personal finances.

Participants earn a ONE-TIME $100 STIPEND upon completion of two virtual 90-minute training sessions.

To be eligible for Opportunity Passport®, participants must be:

- At least 14 but younger than 26 years old
- Currently in foster care, or in foster care for at least one day since turning 14
- Have access to the internet as training is 100% virtual
- Participants must have a bank account and a reliable ongoing source of income
