Mountain View Pioneer Days Electrical Information Sheet

To calculate the amps used with your appliances, determine the number of volts and watts it uses from the serial number plate on the back or underneath of the appliance. The following calculation will convert the volts to amps:

Watts divided by volts = amps

Some appliances list the amps followed by an “A”.

Only 120 volt outlets are available for the day. We do not have the ability to provide 220 volt outlets.

The total amps you have available for your booth is 15. The use of a power strip does not increase the amps available. If you need more than 15 amps for your booth, you will need to purchase multiple electrical hookups at $30 each. You will need to arrange for the extra hookups in advance of the event—additional hookups cannot be allocated that day. If you exceed 15 amps YOU WILL trip the breaker in your booth.

To make the day a success for you, you will need to work within these guidelines. We will make every effort to provide you with sufficient electrical service for the day.
