

ROLES + RESPONSIBILITIES

Coordinator | 6-12 HOURS PER WEEK

Clarity on the role of a coordinator will help you know what you're empowered to do, know what you are entrusted with, and know who you report to with successes and challenges. The descriptions outlined on the previous page will help leaders stay and thrive in their lane.

The responsibilities outlined below clarify the "what" and "when" of each role. Why? Because successful execution of the responsibilities will help create productive and healthy teams. Leaders should be fully comfortable with and committed to the expectations below. All meetings don't have to be in-person and they don't have to be an hour; the purpose is to check in and empower.

SUNDAYS

- Serve at least two services per month.
- Should leaders or team members have to miss a Sunday, the expectation is to communicate one month in advance.
- Leaders should also assign a replacement.

ABSENCES + HOLIDAYS

- No more than two service rotations in a row. No more than eight Sundays in a year.
- Due to the outreach opportunity at Easter and Christmas, all leaders are asked to serve on these holidays.

MAIN RESPONSIBILITIES

DURING THE WEEK

- Participate in meetings with director and team leaders to discuss game plan.
- Communicate the game plan and provide feedback to volunteers.
- Ensure coverage of volunteers.
- Compile reporting from team leaders and submit to directors.

ON THE WEEKEND

- Lead team-specific huddle.
- Delegate details and oversee game plan.
- Mentor team leaders.

ONGOING DEVELOPMENT

- Meet monthly with director one-on-one.
- Meet with team leaders one-on-one at least once a quarter.
- Recruit new volunteers.
- Attend leadership meetings.

RESULTS

Strong relationships and measureable results are evidence of effective leadership. Our systems and strategies are designed to help people connect to community, discover purpose, and make an impact. We believe that your dedication and heart to lead people will produce fruit. To the right are some measurable goals you should strive for as evidence of productivity. Every six months, we will assess the goals, evaluate progress, and adjust accordingly. Each leader will develop goals specific to their team and support these goals.

LEADERSHIP CHARACTERISTICS

GATHERER

Leaders are magnetic and have the ability to easily engage others. They see the value of community and are able to mobilize others toward the vision + values of Freedom House. Gatherers don't just see what people can offer; they discover the potential in others and develop it.

HIGH CAPACITY

Leaders are growth-minded. They look for ways to increase their capacity to serve others. These individuals are able to exceed goals and expectations because of their ability to duplicate themselves and empower others.

GENEROUS

Leaders are consistently looking for opportunities to add value. They seek ways to give more than they take. Generous leaders are willing to invest their influence, resources, and time for the sake of advancing God's plan.

FIT

Leaders are self-aware and demonstrate health spiritually, emotionally, physically, relationally, and financially. They consistently pursue growth in their relationship with God, others, and themselves. Fit leaders thrive in Freedom House's culture due to their teachability and desire for excellence.

GRIT

Leaders are tenacious; they don't give up easily. They set goals and stay committed to achieving them through hard work and maintaining focus. When faced with obstacles, these individuals find solutions, create new ideas, and don't allow setbacks to define who they are or determine how far they can go.

LEADERSHIP EXPECTATIONS

We lead more effectively when we know what is expected of us. Clarifying expectations reduces stress, brings focus to action, and makes teams more productive. These expectations are laid out in four key areas: relationships, roles, responsibilities, and results.

RELATIONSHIPS

There are certain relationships we want leaders to intentionally develop and thrive in. First and foremost, we expect leaders to take care of themselves spiritually, physically, and emotionally. The relational health of our leaders impacts the health of the church. We expect leaders to develop healthy relationships with Christ, their family, the church, and the world. The chart below highlights indicators of healthy, thriving relationships.

RELATIONSHIP WITH GOD

- Growing in your relationship with God.
- Daily time in the Word and prayer.
- Sharing with others what God is speaking to you.
