

Capability Statement

Seamlessly bridging the gap between legal expertise and commercial impact.

Law Squared is a leading global Human Centred law firm, founded in 2016 to provide a true alternative to traditional law firms - for clients and lawyers alike.

Trusted by General Counsel, their in-house teams, and business leaders to bridge the gap between legal expertise and commercial impact, Law Squared prioritise your success over billable hours via our fixed-fee approach.

Our highly skilled lawyers focus on those areas critical to business success, including Corporate + Commercial, Employment + Workplace Relations, Disputes + Litigation, and Digital + Innovation, working as an invaluable extension of your team, or on an ad hoc basis.

With offices in Melbourne, Sydney, Brisbane, and London, Law Squared is a comprehensive, cost-effective proposition for multinational, ASX-listed, and scaling businesses, or those seeking dual jurisdictional or market entry support in Australia and/or the United Kingdom.

A global extension of your team

The launch of our London office in 2022 represents a significant step towards our vision to become a more human centred alternative to traditional law firms for companies in Australia and in the UK.

Offering clients dual jurisdictional support in relevant timezones, Law Squared has proved a welcome offering for businesses previously been challenged by the logistical and conflict of interest difficulties that arise working with large global law firms.

In addition to supporting dual jurisdictional businesses with our scalable, monthly fixed cost solution, Law Squared as a Service (LSaaS), we also work with incoming Australian (and outgoing UK) companies to provide market entry and ad hoc legal support.

Commercial

From the simple, to the complex, our commercial team is perfectly placed to be at your side, with extensive experience in supporting CEOs, CFOs, legal counsels and compliance teams.

Law Squared as a Service (LSaaS)

Our Law Squared as a Service (LSaaS) offering provides businesses and in-house legal teams scalable access to all our legal practice teams, at an upfront, fixed monthly cost.

LSaaS an innovative model increasingly popular with clients regardless of size, and a perfect representation of our approach to partnership.

Led by a dedicated Relationship Manager, we seamlessly integrate our team into your business to support your internal functions with business-as-usual (BAU) matters, while leveraging technology to increase efficiency and transparency of intake, workflow and reporting. LSaaS frees up your internal team to focus on your higher-order business priorities.

Who is LSaaS designed for?

Organisations looking for a more cost effective, immediate resourcing solution than recruitment.

General Counsel's who don't have the time or resources to go through recruiting, onboarding and supporting of new legal team members.

Scaling companies with an increase in legal need and support.

Companies wanting to hire a part-time or fixed-term lawyer (e.g. parental leave cover).

Legal Counsels looking for a project based lawyer without the expense of a placement lawyer.

Outcomes focused GCs looking to optimise their external legal spend.

“

The beauty of the LSaaS model for Bosch Legal was that we experienced expert and timely support. I needed no more and no less of what was delivered, and regardless of what the problem was, I knew Law Squared would have a smart person who would be able to help.

Anne Lock
General Counsel - Bosch Australia.

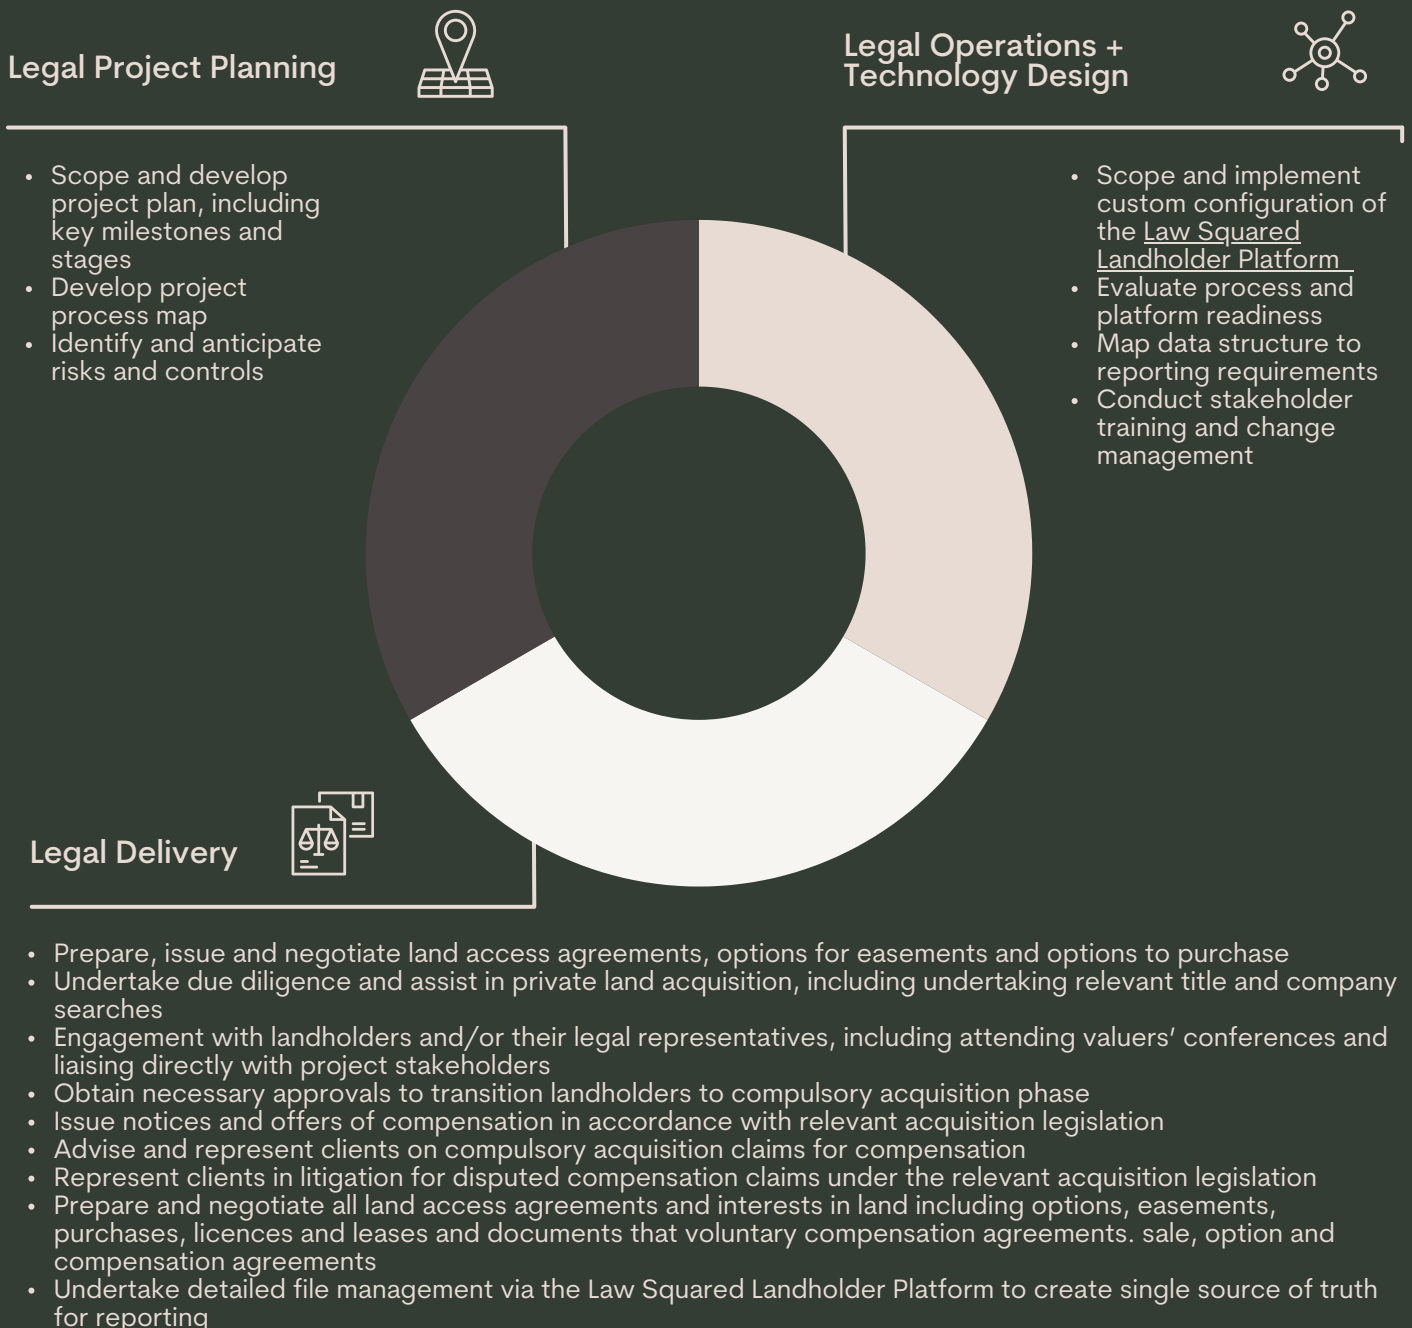

Energy + Infrastructure

Our Energy + Infrastructure practice reimagines an innovative, multi-disciplinary approach for improving landholder engagement to streamline land access for energy, telecommunications and infrastructure projects.

Integrating legal expertise, project management methodologies, and leading-edge technologies with our upfront, fixed fee model, clients are assured cost certainty and visibility at every stage of the landholder engagement process, informing strategic decision-making and delivering cost-effective outcomes.

We take a phased approach to energy and infrastructure projects, providing services including:

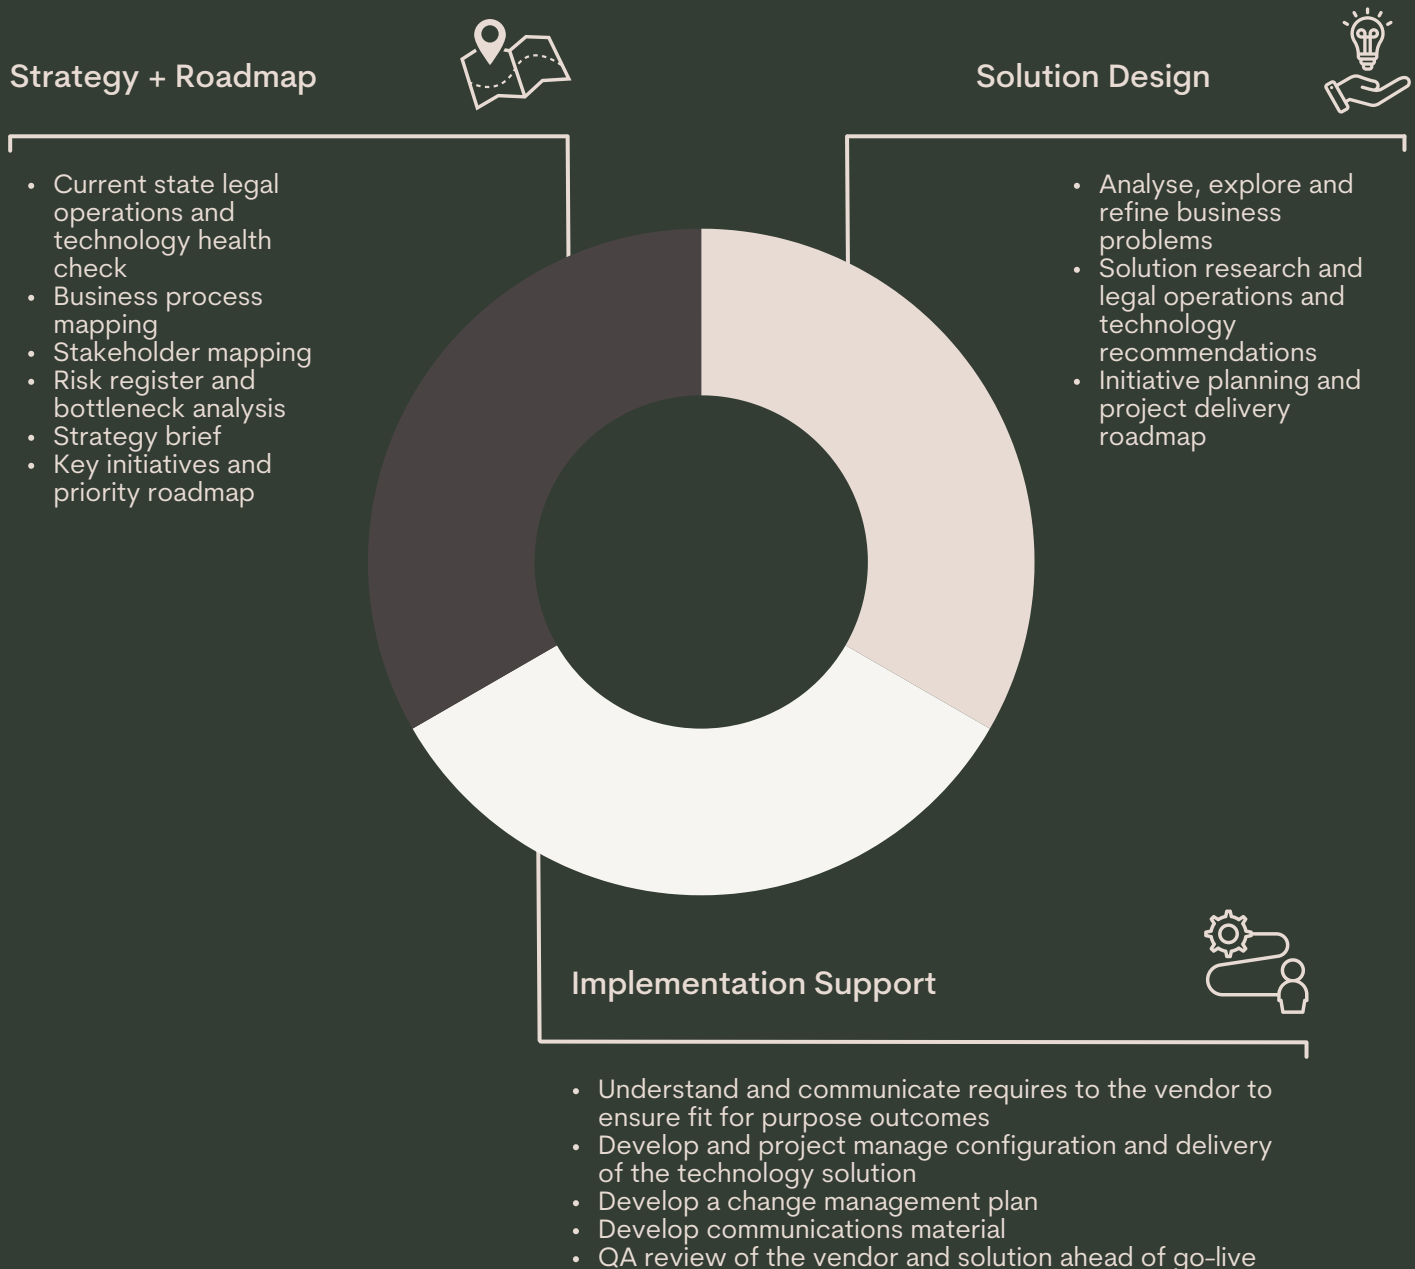

Digital + Innovation

Our Digital + Innovation practice helps your team become future-fit by optimising legal operations and technology. Boggled down by transactional BAU work, few General Counsel have the bandwidth to prioritise digital transformation initiatives. Combining technical nous with a deep understanding of the in-house legal environment, we bring a unique blend of skills, perspectives and a human centred approach to your digital transformation.

Accelerate your legal services delivery by creating digital advantage and leveraging our first-hand experience to select or adapt fit-for-purpose technologies, operationalise and embed lasting change.

Our digital + innovation capabilities include:

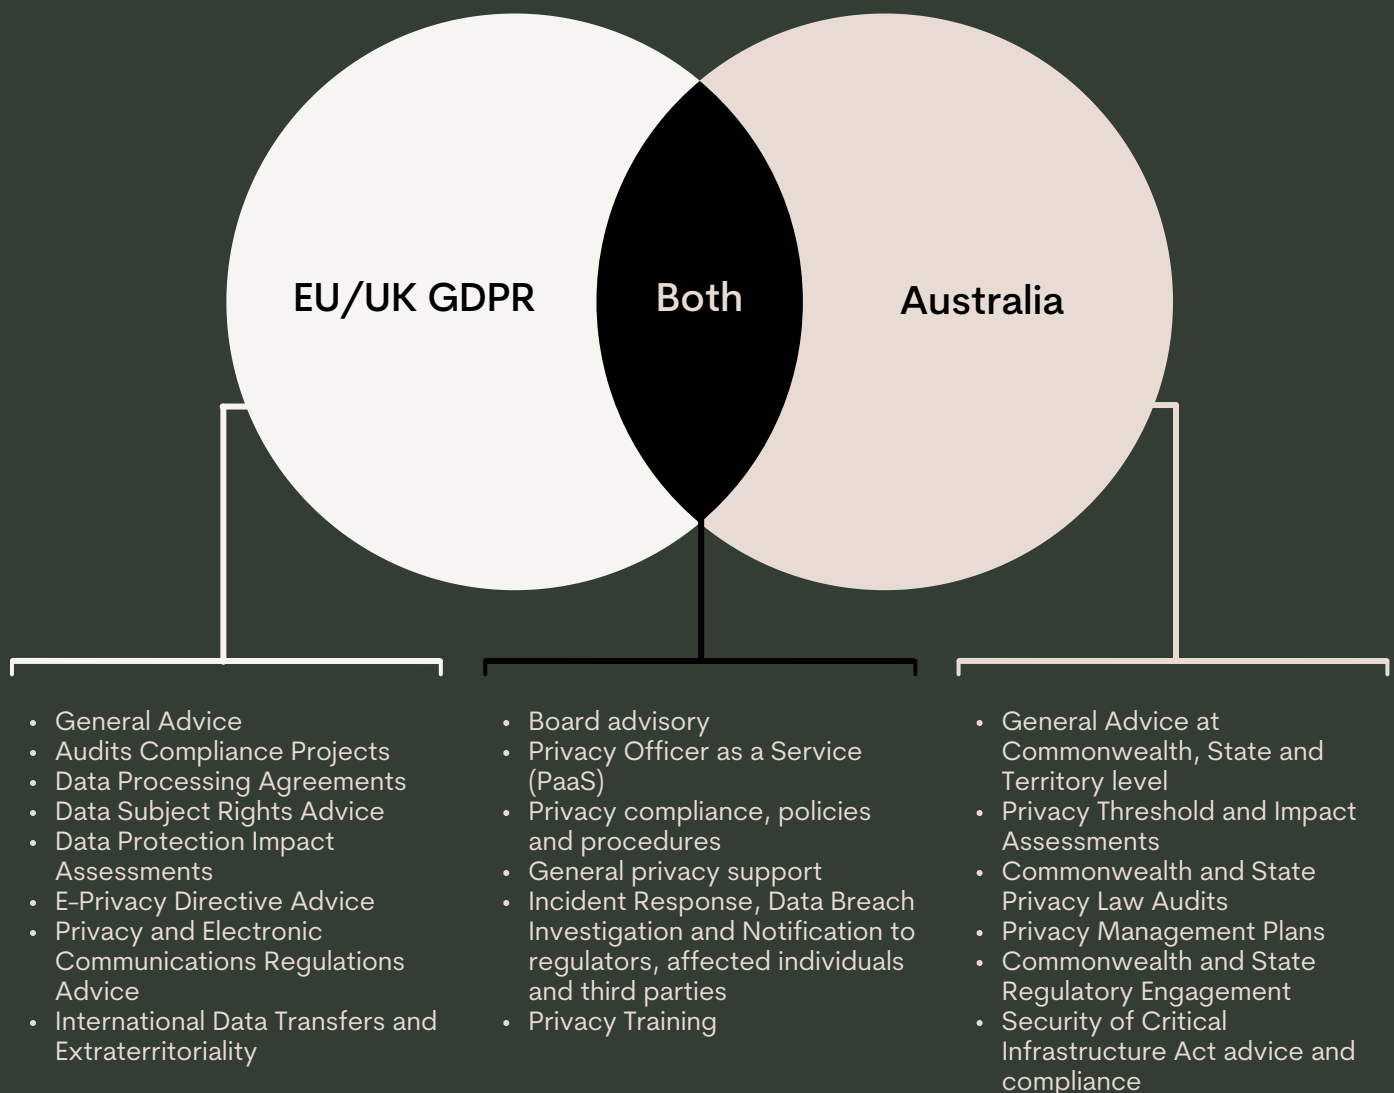

Privacy + Data Protection

From the simple, to the complex, our privacy team has extensive experience supporting C-suite, legal counsel and compliance teams.

With a focused specialisation on technology, privacy, data, intellectual property and general commercial legal needs, we offer practical and commercial support to businesses from multinational, listed, unlisted and emerging technology companies.

Our privacy + data protection capabilities include:

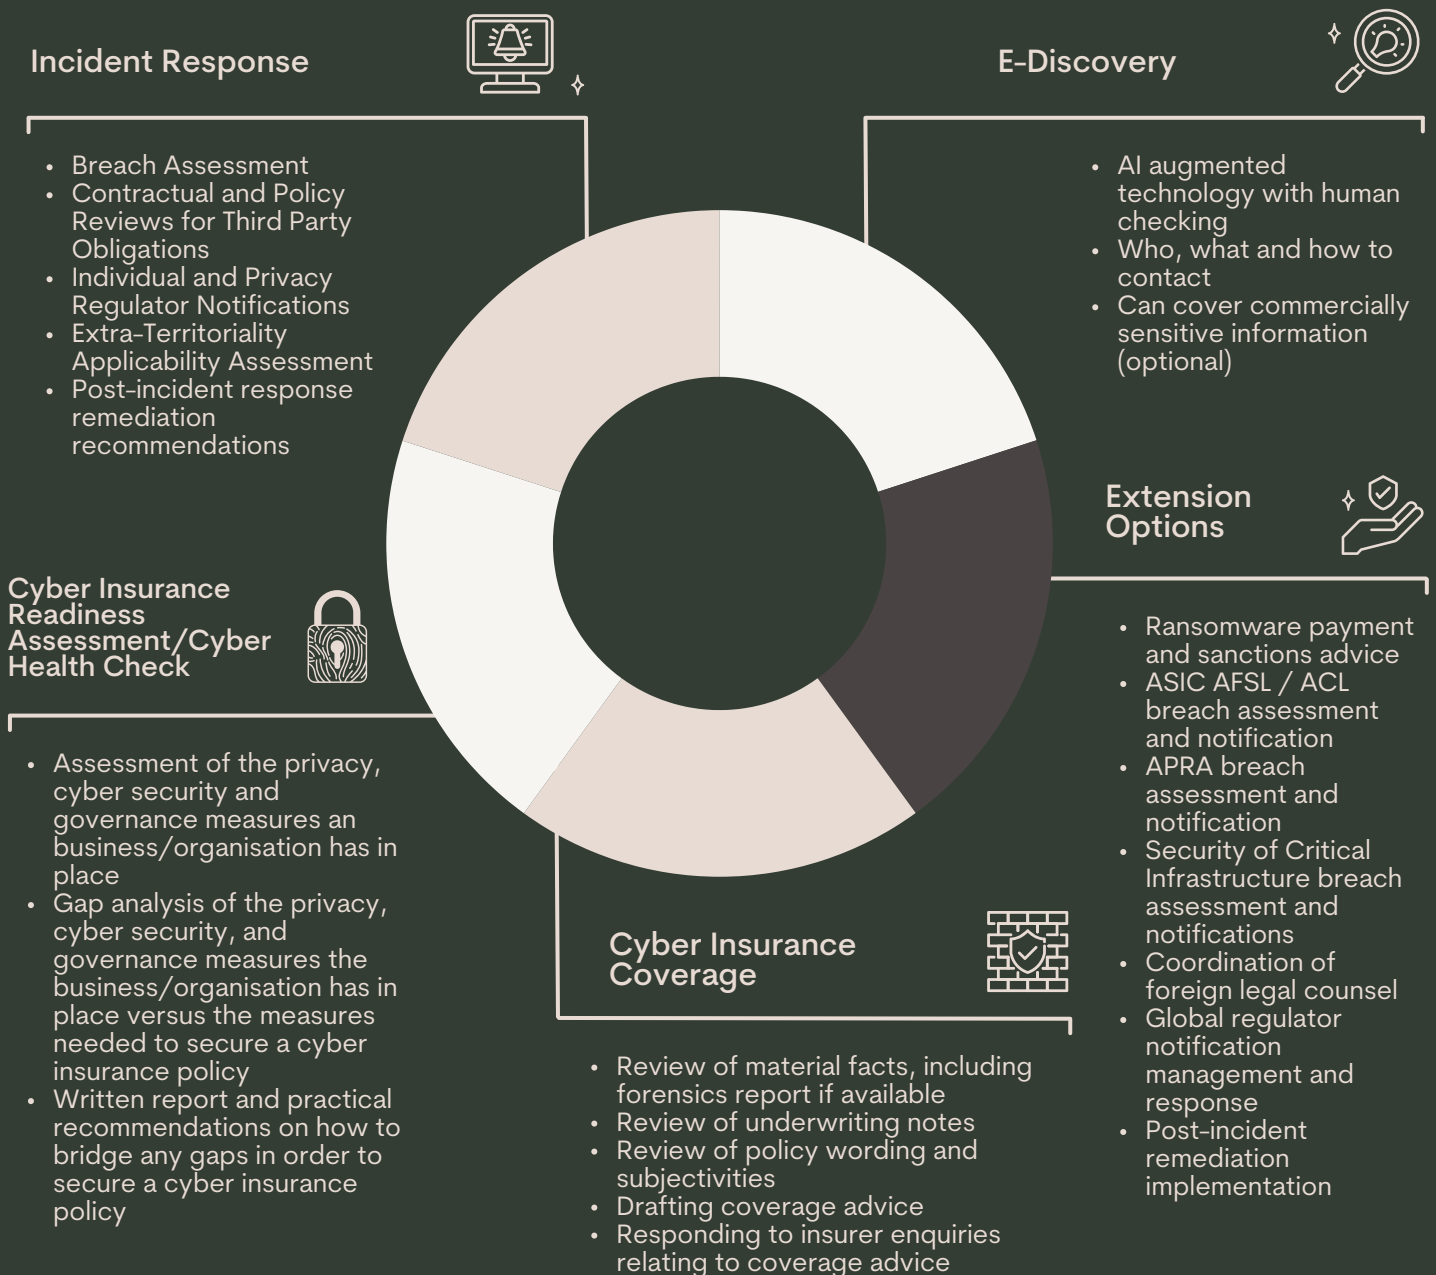

Cyber Incident Response + Cyber Insurance

Law Squared work closely with insurers and insureds to provide legal support across cyber insurance; cyber incident response; engagement with regulators, affected individuals and other stakeholders; and front-end privacy and cyber compliance.

Our specialist lawyers bring extensive experience to this rapidly emerging area of risk, and our fixed-cost, commercial approach represents a unique offering to the insurer market. With offices in Australia and London, we provide timezone relevant support and 24/7 coverage across both jurisdictions.
