

Light for the Nations (LfN)

Cross-Cultural Ministry Training

Equipping for Cross-Cultural Service Around the World Since 2003

Are you called to take the Good News to people of another culture?

Does your drivers' license qualify you to fly a plane?

Light for the Nations equips people to really 'fly' in life and ministry in other people's cultural contexts.

- Experienced Instructors - Minimum 10 years living what they teach.
- Solid Understanding of cross-cultural life and ministry including:
 - Complex and unseen nature of culture and communication
 - Strategic principles of missions: lessons to emulate, to avoid.
 - Incarnational life through linguacultural participation
 - Cultural intelligence
 - Stress management
 - 21st century ministry through business and profession
 - Developing your vision and strategic plan

Is your calling to serve among another people?

Join us and learn to fly!

Let's talk - email: Les Paulsen, LfN Director, les.paulsen@paoc.org