YOURTECHQ

NEWSBITES

WE TURNED I ON MARCH 10TH!!

Can you believe that YourTechQ turned 1 year old on March 10th 2023! What an incredible year of building, connecting, learning, growing, innovating, and expanding our intergenerational digital skills training journey!

WE ARE A YOUTH-LED NON-PROFIT ORGANIZATION, AND WE STRIVE TO EDUCATE DIFFERENT COMMUNITIES ON TECH USAGE AND ACCESSIBILITY IN ORDER TO CREATE DIGITAL EQUITY

OUR COMMUNITY OF SUPPORT

Our growth would not be possible without your incredible support and collaboration for the past one year! As much as we have loved supporting our senior learners learning digital skills, we have learned so much from you all! Thank you for being patient with us and walking this journey with us. WE LOVE GOING BACK TO YOUR COMMUNITIES!!

A CALL FOR NATIONALS!!!!!!

We had the amazing opportunity to present our work to more than 800 digital equity leaders, researchers, and policymakers at the National Digital Inclusion Alliance (NDIA) conference, Netinclusion2023 in San Antonio, TX from Feb 28th-March 2nd. NDIA, City of Portland, and Comcast!!! We are honored and humbled by your support and generous sponsorship.

WHAT'S NEXT?

WE ARE IMMENSELY GRATEFUL AND WOULD LIKE TRUSTING US WITH OUR SERVICES.

ANISHA & SHOMIK

TO THANK YOU ALL FOR YOUR GRACIOUS PARTNERSHIP AND

Immediate Plans for Summer 2023:

- Recruit local high school volunteers and train them as YourTechQ Tech Trainers
- Build partnership with diverse senior communities to expand our service and bring a more equitable solution for digital divide
- Offer virtual tech support to the older adult learners who are comfortable with basic digital skills of device usage

Bigger Plans Beyond Summer 2023:

- Arrange specialized tech events by inviting guest speakers in collaboration with our medical and corporate partners
- Create pathways for meaningful community service projects and Ed-tech/Health-tech internships for local high school students
- Bring scholarship opportunities to support students in need of financial assistance
