

REFERENCES

LITTLETON:

VINTAGE RESERVE SUBDIVISION

Go east on Coal Mine from Pierce; turn left on Harlan. Turn left on W. Calhoun Drive.

Ken and Debbie Meyer

6040 W. Calhoun Drive

This home features berms, boulders and perennials with a Kichler lighting system. The backyard includes a regular concrete patio extension with a unique hot tub gazebo.

Bill and Lori Beard

6069 W. Calhoun Drive

The backyard includes a regular concrete patio extension with a large pergola surrounded by large berms and boulders featuring evergreen trees and a fruit orchard.

Adam and Stephanie Ostrow

6080 W. Calhoun Drive

A regular concrete entranceway with steps draws the viewer's eye to the front door while a small granite wall and aspens frame the right side.

Ray and Judy Rosich

6613 S. Gray Street

Go east on Calhoun Drive across Harlan. Turn left on Gray Street to end of cul-de-sac.

This home features a stamped concrete transition area from driveway to sidewalk and concrete curbing. The backyard contains a large stamped concrete patio with a sitting wall.

Marti & Katie Russell

6618 S. Harlan Street (return to Harlan and go north)

A stamped and textured concrete entranceway and driveway extensions guide the viewer to the front door while framing berms of mulch, cobblestone and trees frame the home. The backyard (visible from the open space) includes a stamped concrete patio, firepit and tumbled stone sitting wall along with privacy trees on berms with boulders.

Marcia Kent

6608 S. Harlan Street

This home features a textured concrete entranceway and driveway extensions along with red moss boulders, berms and perennials. The backyard features a large moss boulder water feature, a trex composite deck and a new mexico buff flagstone patio surrounded by large privacy trees.

Pat & Gaylene Reichlin

6096 W. Hoover Lane (next cul-de-sac on left)

A textured concrete entranceway with lighted steps invites the viewer into the home. Includes cobblestone, berms, spruce and pines and two stamped concrete patios in the backyard.

(Vintage Reserve Subdivision homes continued on next page...)

REFERENCES

LITTLETON

VINTAGE RESERVE SUBDIVISION (continued from previous page)

Marc and Rhonda Nielsen

6095 W. Hoover Lane

A long masoned granite wall with flagstone cap levels the east side of the home while the driveway includes textured concrete borders. The backyard includes a stamped patio with sitting wall, Austrian Pines, ornamental grasses, lilacs and a pondless water feature.

Tim Selby and Jeanne Franco

5994 W. Hoover Avenue (continue north on Harlan, turns into Hoover Ave. as it curves)

The front yard is distinguished by a buff flagstone wall, moss boulders and a blue spruce & red maples. The right front sideyard is a Japanese Garden complete with waterfalls & streams, a wooden bridge a background cedar Torri Gate and buff flagstone patios and sidewalks throughout. An extensive Kichler outdoor light system complements at night.

Roberts, Jarvie, Morton, Jensen; 6003, 5993, 5973 & 5953 W. Hoover Avenue

These four consecutive homes on the northwest side use similar and contrasting elements to blend into each other as in a park. Featuring regular concrete sidewalks and patios, berms, boulders, cobblestone, mulch, white crabapples, perennials, aspens and shrub roses.

Ward & Gabriella Cerny

5984 W. Hoover Avenue

This home features many of the same elements but includes a tumbled paver patio in back.

Kurt and Janice Anderson

5812 W. Hoover Place (turn right on Hoover Place through loop)

Featuring a stamped entranceway and backyard patio with hot tub. Moss boulders on berms with large evergreen and deciduous trees.

Gerald and Cathy Edler

5702 W. Hoover Place

A xeriscape with no turfgrass used. A concrete sidewalk entranceway from the street and stamped concrete driveway extensions are featured in the front. The back includes a large stamped concrete patio surrounded by berms, cobblestone swales, river rock and wyoming red rock. Also includes a Kichler commercial outdoor landscape lighting system.

Other homes in Vintage Reserve: Kalmbach - 5782 W. Hoover Place, Ken and Sue Lavoie - 5722 W. Hoover Place, Mark and Kristen Breslin - 6591 S. Ames Court, Frank and Martha Wolcheski - 5356 W. Euclid Avenue, John Diangelo - 6641 S. Ames Street

