LITTLETON:

MEADOWBROOK SUBDIVISION

Go east on Chatfield from Kipling; turn south on Estes Street several streets after Garrison.

Ann Schurig

8354 S. Estes Street

This home features 3 large spade Ponderosa Pines in the backyard with a regular concrete patio extension. The front yard includes a buff flagstone entranceway from the driveway, berms with boulders and a Colorado Blue Spruce framing the right side.

Brent and Kitty Ohman

8364 S. Estes Street

The backyard features a large stamped concrete patio with steps and a small water feature. The front yard includes a mulched berm, moss boulder, flagstone steppers and clump Maple.

Karl and June Langas

8414 S. Estes Street

The front yard was modified to include berm, boulders and a selection of colorful plants. The backyard features a stamped concrete patio and play area with a decorative block wall.

KEN CARYL SUBDIVISION

Go west on Ken Caryl Ave. from C470

Parsons, House, and Foster

45, 47, and 49 Blue Sage respectively

Turn north on Woodruff off Valley Parkway by school

These three homes show a unique contrast in rock walls complementing brick and siding colors. Buff flagstone, moss rock, and granite walls were used for both aesthetic and practical applications. The middle home (47) features white cobblestone areas and a special blend of fescue grass.

Kimmes, Sullivan, and Roe

52, 50, and 46 Blue Sage respectively

Across the street from previous homes

The first home was a landscape renovation that now features moss rock walls, a grey breeze pathway for mower access and a small flagstone patio with steps in back. The Sullivan home has a rose concrete walkway leading to a patterned concrete patio in back. The entire backyard had a downward slope that was elevated and levelled with a large, two-tiered tie wall that incorporates plant material along the back property line.
