

What is Enactus UK?

Q: What is Enactus?

A: Enactus is an global network that connects students, academics and business leaders and supports them to use the power of business and innovation to create change and transform lives. Enactus believes that investing in students who take entrepreneurial action for others creates a better world for us all.

Q: Why Should I join?

A: Join if you want to, A) Work with real people, creating real change to improve communities. B) Build your own skill set and improve your employability post-graduation. C) Meet like-minded people and make friends!

Q: Can anyone join?

A: Absolutely! If you are registered as a University student we would love you to be part of our network! We encourage diversity in every aspect at Enactus.

Q: Is it a lot of time commitment?

A: There are roles in Enactus to suit anyone's schedule – we know you are busy people! But as with anything, the more you put in, the more you get out. The average commitment is around 2-3 hours per week, but can be less or more!

Q: What will I actually do?

A: Great question! The projects are the main bread and butter and are where the magic happens, but there may be leadership roles within your team that are up for grabs. Whatever you do in Enactus you can improve your skill set and make a real change to people's lives.

Q: Can I add it to my CV?

A: Of course! The skills and experience you build in Enactus are invaluable in your future employment which is why Enactus UK is recognised as a fantastic initiative to be involved in by many graduate recruiters some of whom are our official partners.

Q: What skills can I gain?

A: More like – what skills are there left to gain! Enactus will support you in any skill you want to develop – communication, leadership, teamwork, resilience, flexibility, project management, problem solving, organisation, strategy development, time management and many more!
