

THE ART NEWSPAPER

In pictures | Step back to the future at Design Miami

Words by EMILY SHARPE. Photographs by DAVID OWENS
6th December 2019 15:29 GMT

This year, Design Miami celebrates its 15th anniversary in its new home in Pride Park, next to the convention centre. From space-age jewels to Japanese baskets, here is our pick of what not to miss at the fair.

Roberto Lugo, Street Shrine 1: A Notorious Story (2019) Wexler Gallery; $160,000: This trio of ceramic pieces, two urns and a child's teddy bear, is inspired by the makeshift memorials for gun violence victims that are popping up on streets across the US. Graffiti and hip-hop references often feature in the artist and activist's work; these pieces are decorated with images of hip-hop giants Biggie Smalls and Tupac Shakur, both victims of gun crime.