IT CAN’T HAPPEN HERE - AGAIN
JULY 19, 2024

A NATIONWIDE EVENT PRESENTED BY WRITERS FOR DEMOCRATIC ACTION
www.writersfordemocraticaction.org/ICHH
AND PARTNERS ACROSS AMERICA

{In 1936, It Can’t Happen Here, a stage adaptation by Sinclair Lewis of his own bestselling novel, opened simultaneously on 21 stages in 17 states across America on October 27th, one week before that year’s presidential election. It served as a warning against the rise of fascism in America. It Can’t Happen Here – Again, by Writers for Democratic Action, is both an homage to the 1936 production and a call to action now, in 2024. Thank you for joining us with your own production.}

WRITERS RESIST!
VOTERS VOTE!
IT CAN’T HAPPEN HERE – AGAIN!
Presented by Writers for Democratic Action

(FIVE PLAYERS with scripts in front of the gathered audience.)

It Can’t Happen Here!

ALL FIVE PLAYERS

A statement!

PLAYER ONE

A declarative statement!

PLAYER TWO

An ironic statement!

PLAYER THREE

It Can’t Happen Here!

PLAYER FOUR

A provocation!

PLAYER FIVE

A warning!

PLAYER ONE

The ultimate denial of reality!

PLAYER TWO

It Can’t Happen Here!

ALL FIVE PLAYERS

The title of a novel and play by Sinclair Lewis…
PLAYER FIVE
Which perfectly expresses the complicity

PLAYER THREE
And complacency

PLAYER FIVE
Of America in 1936…

ALL FIVE PLAYERS
And now!

PLAYER FOUR
In 1936, the tide of authoritarian dictatorship was flowing.

PLAYER ONE
In 2024, the tide of authoritarian dictatorship is flowing.

PLAYER THREE
In 1936, Adolf Hitler’s storm troopers reoccupied the Rhineland, a signal of a forbidden German rearmament that went unopposed.

PLAYER TWO
In 2024, Vladimir Putin began the third year of his full-scale invasion of Ukraine.

PLAYER FIVE
In 1936, Francisco Franco claimed totalitarian powers in Spain, and the brutal Spanish Civil War was ignited.

PLAYER FOUR
In 2024, the war between Israel and Hamas splintered the American Left, threatening its ability to defend democracy. (PAUSE)
PLAYER ONE
In 1936, the Great Purge was underway in the Soviet Union, marked by the murders of 700,000 people, a tsunami of blood that secured the tyranny of Joseph Stalin.

PLAYER THREE
In 2024, Xi Jinping crushed feminist movements in China, silencing women who have accused powerful men of sexual assault. In North Korea, Kim Jung Un spurred women to seek refuge abroad at roughly three times the rate of men. And in Afghanistan, the Taliban’s victory has erased twenty years of progress on women’s access to education and representation in public office and the workforce.

ALL FIVE PLAYERS
And in the United States of America...

PLAYER TWO
On October 27, 1936, in the United States of America, one week before a presidential election

PLAYER FOUR
An election which would determine not only the fate of the New Deal, but of democracy itself

PLAYER TWO
21 coast-to-coast productions of a new play premiered simultaneously on 21 stages in 17 American cities. The play was called:

ALL FIVE PLAYERS
It Can’t Happen Here!

PLAYER THREE
Based on the novel by Sinclair Lewis, America’s first and at that time only Nobel laureate in literature.

PLAYER TWO
That play, like our performance tonight, asks what happens when dictatorship threatens democracy
And, less obviously,

...what happens when complacency begets complicity.

(Beat. Shift.) In 1936, Hallie Flanagan was invited to do something big.

I was asked by Harry Hopkins, my former classmate at Grinnell, to lead the newly created Federal Theater Project. Harry, wouldn’t you know, was head of the Works Progress Administration. Director of America’s first and only national theatre? Hey, not bad for a girl from Redfield, South Dakota!

She immediately commissioned Sinclair Lewis to write a stage adaptation of his novel...

“It Can’t Happen Here’ because it is a play about American life today. The play says that when dictatorship comes to threaten democracy it comes in an apparently harmless guise, with parades and promises, but that when such dictatorship arrives, the promises are not kept, and the parade grounds become encampments. We as American citizens...should like to do what we can to keep alive the ‘free, enquiring, critical spirit’ which is the center and core of a democracy.”

The play opened on the very same night in Birmingham and Denver

Omaha and Los Angeles
PLAYER FOUR
A New York production in Yiddish.

PLAYER ONE
A Spanish production in Tampa.

PLAYER TWO
A black production in Seattle…

PLAYER FOUR
…featuring white actors as the villains.

PLAYER THREE
In an article about the 21 simultaneous productions, The New York Times wrote, “Thousands of Americans who do not know what a fascist dictatorship would mean now have an opportunity to find out.”

PLAYER ONE
And today, on July 19th 2024

PLAYER FIVE
One day after the third consecutive nomination of Donald J. Trump to be the Republican candidate for President of the United States

PLAYER ONE
Writers for Democratic Action invites us to gather for a reading

PLAYER FIVE
And a call to action.

PLAYER ONE
The play you are now watching
PLAYER FIVE
Like the one staged across the country on October 27, 1936

PLAYER ONE
Is being publicly performed across America in bookstores and public squares

PLAYER FIVE
Theaters and coffee house

PLAYER ONE
Churches and bars

PLAYER FIVE
In multiple cities, towns and villages

PLAYER ONE
In multiple states

PLAYER FIVE
We are gathered together to ask:

PLAYER TWO
What’s happening here?

PLAYER THREE
What has happened here?

PLAYER FOUR
CAN it happen here?

PLAYER ONE
And…
ALL FIVE PLAYERS

What can we do about it?!

PLAYER ONE

Welcome all!

PLAYER THREE

We so appreciate your presence here.

PLAYER TWO

Thank you for coming.

PLAYER FOUR

Together, we can make a difference.

PLAYER FIVE

Together, we can make our voices heard.

ALL FIVE PLAYERS

Welcome all! (The CAST briefly and warmly applauds the audience)

PLAYER ONE

The protagonist of Lewis' play is a small town newspaper editor named,

PLAYER TWO

(As JESSUP)

PLAYER ONE

The populist candidate for President, running against Franklin Roosevelt, is a character named
PLAYER THREE (As WINDRIP)

PLAYER ONE
On the campaign trail, Buzz Windrip makes a speech:

PLAYER THREE
(As WINDRIP)
“I am just a Common Man! A plain man...darn near as plain and common as Abe Lincoln or that old Virginia hick farmer, George Washington [who] chased the red-coats from the land, by golly, with a pitch-fork!

“Folks were wrong when they thought this trip was to educate the people about Buzz. No. It’s me that got educated. What grand people I’ve been meeting. And everywhere I have found the true American people DIVIDED...kept apart by the politicians who in their insensate selfishness befoil the very constituents who have placed them on their tinseled thrones. We ought to go forth into the great councils of state, not asking for anything but tellin’ ‘em!

“If you honor me with your votes, I shall not be president...no, I mean that...NOT BE PRESIDENT AT ALL, but the telephone central through whom every man in this great land can get in touch with every other man so that...for the first time since 1861...we can be joined in one unified nation that will sweep the world.”

PLAYER ONE
Doremus Jessup...educated, liberal...

PLAYER TWO
...complacent...

PLAYER ONE
Doremus Jessup, whose belief in reason over emotion naively extends to his fellow citizens, concludes:

PLAYER TWO
(As JESSUP)
“It’s not so much that I trust Windrip as that I trust that!”
PLAYER THREE

(Confused) Trust what?

PLAYER TWO

(As JESSUP)

(Indicating the audience) That!

PLAYER ONE

Quote from the original stage directions, “With a wide gesture he indicates the valley and the far-off hills.”

PLAYER TWO

(As JESSUP)

(With a gesture indicating the audience gathered for this event) “Look! God’s own free, open American country! Do you know how big Texas is? Big as any three European countries put together. This isn’t any one-horse European country that a dictator could get hold of. No sir! It’s too big! Dictatorship…it can’t happen here!”

PLAYER FIVE

(BEAT. SHIFT.) May 10th, 1933. Berlin. In an effort to cleanse Germany of “un-German” books, 25,000 volumes are burned.

PLAYER ONE

Burn Freud!

PLAYER TWO

Burn Einstein!

PLAYER THREE

Burn Kafka!

PLAYER FOUR

Burn Brecht!
ALL FIVE PLAYERS

Burn Sinclair Lewis!

PLAYER TWO

December 5, 2023, the Fight Book Bans Act is introduced to the House of Representatives. Congressman Jamie Raskin, quote:

PLAYER FIVE
(as RASKIN)

“America is in the middle of an escalating book ban crisis that requires our full attention and strong response. Sinister campaigns to remove books from our schools and libraries are a hallmark of authoritarian and fascist regimes.” vi

ALL FIVE PLAYERS

Ban Atwood!

PLAYER THREE
(as MARGARET ATWOOD)

Ban me? Margaret Atwood? Quote: “I had thought America was against totalitarianisms. If so, surely it is important for young people to be able to recognize signs of them. One of those signs is book-banning. Need I say more?” vii

ALL FIVE PLAYERS

Ban Morrison!

PLAYER FOUR
(as TONI MORRISON)

Ban me? Toni Morrison? Quote: “I come from a race of people for whom at one time in this country it was illegal to be taught to read…white people who taught Black people how to read were taking the risk of being punished…I think the same sensibilities that informed those people to make it a criminal act for Black people to read are the ancestors of the same people who are making it a criminal act for their own children to read and I don’t see a great deal of difference between that.” viii

ALL FIVE PLAYERS

Ban Henry Louis Gates!
PLAYER ONE
(as HENRY LOUIS GATES)
Ban me? Quote: “Censorship is to art as lynching is to justice.” ix

PLAYER TWO
But can it happen here?

PLAYER FOUR
It IS happening here!
(The following three speeches are spoken simultaneously in an attempt to undermine PLAYER FOUR’s alarmist statement)

PLAYER ONE
Whoa there, slow down!

PLAYER TWO
Nothing like that is happening here!

PLAYER THREE
It just looks like it’s happening here, but it’s really not!

PLAYER TWO
(Coming over the top of the previous three simultaneous lines) Oh-kaaay maybe it’s happening just a little bit in “Florida.” Okay? And, like, “Texas-or-whatever?”

PLAYER THREE
But this is America!

PLAYER ONE
This is America!

ALL FIVE PLAYERS except PLAYER FOUR
It Can’t Happen Here!
PLAYER FOUR
Well, that’s a relief! Except…but…really? Why are you so certain it can’t?

PLAYER THREE
November 12, 2023…at a rally in Claremont, New Hampshire…

PLAYER FOUR
The former President of the United States, campaigning for his third consecutive nomination to be Republican candidate for President, said:

PLAYER ONE
(As TRUMP)
“We pledge to you that we will root out the communists, Marxists, fascists, and the radical left thugs that live like vermin within the confines of our country that lie and steal and cheat on elections. The threat from outside forces is far less sinister, dangerous, and grave than the threat from within.”

PLAYER FOUR
Threat from within? What does that mean? Who is he talking about?

PLAYER THREE
(BEAT. SHIFT.) By Act III of “It Can’t Happen Here,” Doremus Jessup is tortured and imprisoned in a concentration camp for seditious writing, critical of the Windrip administration.

PLAYER FOUR
He dreams of escape to a better place.

PLAYER TWO
(As JESSUP)
“Think of being in a place where you can speak right out without looking back over your shoulder! Think of…Montreal.”
Hi. Thank you so much for coming. Your concern...your patriotism (and my, that's a tricky word!) is deeply...moving to me. To my memory. My name is Dorothy Thompson. I lived from 1893 to 1961 and enjoy the wonderful distinction of being the first American journalist to be expelled from Nazi Germany in 1934. I wrote the book, “I Saw Hitler” (out of print, alas, but quite the sensation at the time!) and described the man thus: “He is formless. He is inconsequent and voluble, ill poised and insecure. He is the very prototype of the little man.” Ring any bells?

I was married to Sinclair Lewis. He also wrote a book which was quite a sensation at the time. But his is still very much in print, the bastard.

What did I learn from my time in Germany?

“When our dictator turns up, you can depend on it that he will be one of the boys. He will stand for everything traditionally American. And nobody will say ‘Heil’ to him, nor call him ‘Fuhrer’ or ‘Duce.’ They will greet him with one great big, universal, democratic, sheeplike bleat of ‘O.K, Chief! Fix it like you wanna, Chief! Oh Kaaay!’”

My greatest concern, in 1936 yes, but for all of you in 2024 perhaps even more so, is this: You have moved so far “away from an informed public to a persuaded public.”

“When liberty is taken away by force, it can be restored by force. [But] when it is relinquished by default, it can never be recovered.”

PLAYER FOUR
(as DOROTHY PARKER)
Dorothy Thompson! As I live and breathe! And I don't! Not since 1967, may I rest in peace. I'm the other Dorothy. The funny one. I'm Dorothy Parker. And I hear you. “When editors asked me what I was doing to combat Fascism?...I could only answer...not enough. My last editor asked, ‘God damn it, why can't you be funny again?’”

PLAYER ONE
In 1936, Dorothy Parker helped found the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League. When she died in 1967, she bequeathed her estate to Martin Luther King, Jr.
PLAYER FOUR
(as DOROTHY PARKER)
Like so many writers who were anti-fascist activists in the 1930s, I was blacklisted in the 1950s by the distinguished Republican from Wisconsin, Senator Joe McCarthy…

PLAYER ONE
(As MCCARTHY)
“I have here in my hand a list of two hundred and five people that were known to the Secretary of State as being members of the Communist Party…”

PLAYER FOUR
(as DOROTHY PARKER)
One of many times when it did happen here. (Beat) God damn it, why can’t I make that sound funny?

PLAYER TWO
(BEAT. SHIFT.) Before the internet

PLAYER THREE
And podcasts

PLAYER FOUR
And blogs!

PLAYER TWO
Long before eight-track tapes

PLAYER THREE
And television

PLAYER FOUR
And color movies

PLAYER TWO
There was only radio!
And in 1936, if you wanted to win the presidency, you absolutely had to have the support of

Father Charles Coughlin

“The Radio Priest”

Demagogue and master of the medium

Reaching a quarter of all Americans every week.

In the play, Lewis calls him, “Pastor Paul Peter Prang.”

Today we might call him “Fox”

Spoiler Alert: FDR did NOT have the support of either Father Charles Coughlin...

Of course he did not have my support. “Democracy in America is doomed. This is our last election. It is fascism or communism. We are at the crossroads. I take the road to fascism.”

Father! What?
PLAYER FOUR
(as COUGHLIN)
“And when we get through with the Jews of America, they'll think the treatment they received in Germany was nothing.” xiv

PLAYER FIVE
…nor did FDR have the support Pastor Paul Peter Prang, the fictional Father in Lewis’ play whose imitation of Coughlin wasn’t terribly exaggerated.

PLAYER ONE
(as PRANG)
I am Pastor Peter Paul Prang and while “I (have) no quarrel with individual Jews…those subversive international organizations which, unfortunately, are so largely Jewish, must be driven with whips and scorpions from off the face of the earth.” xv

PLAYER THREE
Today we have Tucker Carlson

PLAYER FIVE
(as TUCKER CARLSON)
“(Kamala) Harris is a member of the new master race. She must be shown maximum respect at all times, no matter what she says or does.” xvi

PLAYER THREE
And Alex Jones

PLAYER TWO
(as ALEX JONES)
“Unfortunately folks we gotta help the innocents and face the demons that have taken over. We gotta face it. Most of your top government people are child rapists, murdering scum. I’ve told you everything else, you’ve seen it come true. It’s a pedophile army.” xvii

PLAYER THREE
And a former
PLAYER FOUR
(Drawn out for emphasis) Pre-si-dent of the U-ni-ted States!

PLAYER THREE
Ordered by a Manhattan jury to pay eighty-three million dollars for defaming a woman he raped in a department store.

PLAYER TWO
What was the reaction of the former…

PLAYER FOUR
(Drawn out more for even greater emphasis) Pre-si-dent of the U-ni-ted States!

PLAYER TWO
…as he left the courtroom?

PLAYER ONE
(As TRUMP)
“This is not America.”

PLAYER FIVE
Actually, it is.

PLAYER ONE
(As TRUMP)
“This is NOT America.” xviii

PLAYER FIVE
It is, actually. Yup. Sure is. Nobody above the law? Mm-hm, yeah, that’s pretty much how it’s supposed to work actually.

PLAYER ONE
(As TRUMP)
(Tantrum) This is not AMERICA! This is NOT America! It’s not, it’s not, it’s NOT!
ALL FIVE PLAYERS

Yes! It! Is!

PLAYER FOUR
Fearing for his precarious hold on power, in Sinclair Lewis’ play President Buzz Windrip raises an armed militia

PLAYER THREE
An armed militia which is independent of established government agencies

PLAYER FOUR
An armed militia which is directly accountable to President Windrip

PLAYER TWO
An armed militia which imprisons

PLAYER FIVE
Assaults

PLAYER THREE
And murders American citizens who disagree in any way with President Windrip.

PLAYER ONE
An armed militia with the sole function of intimidating dissent.

PLAYER FOUR
In Sinclair Lewis’ fiction, they are called:

ALL FIVE PLAYERS
“The Minute Men.”

PLAYER FIVE
In America in 2024, they are called:
Army of God       PLAYER THREE
Aryan Nation      PLAYER TWO
Boogaloo Bois    PLAYER ONE
Oath Keepers      PLAYER FOUR
White League      PLAYER FIVE
Proud Boys        PLAYER THREE
Patriot Movement  PLAYER TWO
Imperial Klans of America  PLAYER ONE
QAnon             PLAYER FOUR

All awaiting instructions from their Commander in Chief
PLAYER ONE
(as TRUMP)
“I am your voice. I am your warrior. I am your justice. And for those who have been wronged or betrayed…”

PLAYER FIVE
Instructions which may be issued on January sixth...

PLAYER ONE
(as TRUMP)
“I am your retribution.”

PLAYER FIVE
Or on any other day...

PLAYER ONE
(as TRUMP)
“Stand back and stand by.”

PLAYER FIVE
(BEAT. SHIFT.) Sinclair Lewis ended his play “It Can’t Happen Here” with the admonishment: “Remember everything. Remember America.”

PLAYER FOUR
But what America, exactly, are we to remember?

PLAYER TWO
In the America I remember, I can check out any book from the library and read all the possibilities. I imagine freely. No books are banned or burning in the America I remember.

PLAYER THREE
In the America I remember, I can seek help when my body and future are in danger. I have choice.
PLAYER FOUR
I remember never having a lockdown drill. Never having heard the words “school shooting.” I can go to school unafraid in the America I remember.

PLAYER FIVE
The America I remember opens its golden door and cries, “Give me your tired, your poor, your huddled masses yearning to breathe free.”

PLAYER ONE
I remember all of our votes being counted, fair and free elections being fair and free. America, I remember.

PLAYER TWO
Remember with us.

PLAYER THREE
Remember everything.

ALL FIVE PLAYERS
Remember America.

PLAYER FOUR
But how? (BEAT) How are we going to do that?

PLAYER TWO
(as WALTER WINCHELL)
(BEAT. SHIFT.) “Good evening Mister and Mrs. America, from border to border and coast to coast and all the ships at sea. This is Walter Winchell. Let’s get to press…”

PLAYER ONE
Remember that Sinclair Lewis’ play was seen across the nation one week before the 1936 presidential election…
PLAYER TWO
(as WALTER WINCHELL)
“The election results are in. President Roosevelt has carried every state in the nation, except two…”

PLAYER FOUR
Remember America.

PLAYER TWO
(as WALTER WINCHELL)
“As Maine goes, so goes Vermont.”

PLAYER FOUR
Remember your sacred duty as a citizen of this nation.

ALL FIVE PLAYERS
(To AUDIENCE as 2024 citizens) Vote!
In November, 1936…
(ALL FIVE PLAYERS turn upstage. ALL FIVE PLAYERS mime pulling the lever in a voting booth. ALL FIVE PLAYERS then turn downstage.)
…WE DID!

PLAYER THREE
(as FDR)
This is Franklin Delano Roosevelt and it is my privilege to serve as your newly re-elected president. “I see a great nation upon a great continent…but here is a challenge to our democracy…I see tens of millions of its citizens…denied the necessities of life. One third of a nation ill-housed, ill-clad, ill-nourished… We are determined to make every American citizen the subject of this country’s interest and concern… I shall do my utmost to speak their purpose and to do their will…to give light to them that sit in darkness and to guide our feet onto the way of peace.” xxii

PLAYER FIVE
Remember America!

ALL FIVE PLAYERS
Remember America!
PLAYER ONE

But what do we do?

(ALL FIVE PLAYERS clap four beats together in unison to create a steady rhythm which becomes the tempo for the following call and response section. ALL FIVE PLAYERS repeat every “What do we do” encouraging the AUDIENCE to join in.)

ALL FIVE PLAYERS

What do we do?

= NOTE TO THE PLAYERS =

Thank you for joining our nationwide production of It Can’t Happen Here – Again. We are very grateful for the generosity of your talent, time and commitment.

The show needs a minimum of FIVE PLAYERS. The show could probably accommodate as many as twenty players if the company involved is willing to reassign lines in a way which makes sense for your production. Whatever the size of your cast, each PLAYER in the show enacts a version of him/her/them-self as well as a variety of characters, contemporary and historical. It would be wonderful if you could recruit actors to be PLAYERS, but anyone who is undaunted by public speaking (i.e., teachers, activists, writers, clergy, etc.) and who supports the gesture we are creating is an excellent choice.

We support your creative freedom in preparing your performance of this text. We encourage you to keep your production simple, prioritizing both the connection your PLAYERS are making with the text as well as the connection your PLAYERS are making with your audience.

We make only one request: We urge you to AVOID IMPERSONATIONS of the contemporary and historical characters. Speak their lines in your own voices. We are especially concerned about the depiction of TRUMP. An impersonation, however well-intended, may have the unanticipated effect of creating a comical, endearing character. We appreciate how tempting it is to lampoon him with a well-executed impersonation but we overwhelmingly prefer that his WORDS come through, uninflected, as the authoritarian statements they plainly are. We need the full impact of his rhetoric to land on the audience without being unintentionally softened by comic effect.

Inspire your audiences! Have fun! Thank you!

= NOTE TO THE PRODUCERS =

This text should be embargoed until our nationwide production date, July 19th, 2024. Please circulate only as needed to prepare for committed productions.

A “committed production” agrees:

1. To confirm your plan to produce the piece and to let us know the name and address of the venue where it will be performed. Contact us at WDApresentsICHH@gmail.com
2. To charge no admission fee for the event. We do, however, encourage productions to solicit funds for a get-out-the-vote non-profit organization of their choice.
3. To use the script to encourage public discussion about getting out the vote.
4. To report back to us about attendance and audience response.
5. To provide us with copies of any video or photographic record of the performance for our use in get-out-the-vote social media promotion.
6. To join us in repeating this event on October 27, 2024, eighty-eight years to the day after It Can’t Happen Here opened nationwide in 1936.

= ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS =

On October 24, 2011, celebrating the 75th anniversary of the 1936 performances of It Can’t Happen Here, there were nationwide readings sponsored by Dell’Arte International and the San Francisco Mime Troupe, organized by the actor Darryl Henriques. WDA acknowledge a debt to Mr. Henriques, from whom we obtained the poster reproductions on our title page. We had invaluable advice from Allie Mulholland, Artistic Director of The ReGroup Theater in New York, and from Professor Sally Parry of Illinois State University, Executive Director of the Sinclair Lewis Society. WDA gratefully acknowledge debts to them as well.
