SUCCESS STORIES

“Thank you so much for allowing my son this opportunity. He really enjoyed himself. His father has absolutely nothing to do with him, so I’m so very grateful for you men that take part in his life. I’m forever thankful for Big Homie Lil Homie Mentoring.”

“And as always Big salute to all the Big homies you are over appreciated. You are more than present and available for our little homies and supportive of us parents as well. Your ability to be informative, show up for your personal careers, families and this extended family is impeccable, you are not human • We are definitely BHLH for Life thank you”

“Thank you to all the Big Homies! This experience, my son will always reflect back to me. It was very beneficial to his personal growth and self-confidence.”

“I say it again, our big Homies are the real MVPs. You are a such an amazing team of MENTors... Y'all have stepped up and stepped in for our young Kings to help us navigate them through these challenging and impressionable years; male bonding and sowing life lessons into them that us moms/grandmothers are not capable of duplicating. Thank you to all of our mentors and their families for being so unselfish and making positive sacrifices for our Lil Homies. Mere words cannot fully express our gratitude to each of you. Our families are better of yours. Extending much love, gratitude.”

IMPACT & OUTCOMES

Saving a life is equivalent to saving an entire community. Even the smallest effort can have a significant impact and make a positive difference. As an organization, we strongly believe that our community needs to be supported in the best way possible. Therefore, we hope to play a contributory role in bringing about positive change in the lives of young males from single-parent families. By uplifting the boy child, we can work towards creating a stable community, providing hope for those in similar situations to play a part in the future. Our ultimate goal is to help a single individual, with the hope that this effort will multiply as time goes on. In the future, we envision that everyone in the community who needs support will be assisted by a member or a product of our efforts.
