Cardiovascular Disease (CVD) is the most common cause of death in Men, Women, and most racial and ethnic groups in the United States.

Americans living in the American South, particularly in the Appalachian Region, are disproportionately impacted by CVD in terms of both diagnoses and mortality.