

Thinking Ahead.

Looking after the wellbeing of our customers and the sector in a changing world

Tuesday 8th November, 2022
Cordis, Tāmaki Makaurau Auckland, New Zealand

Matthew Tukaki

Matthew Tukaki is currently the Director of the Suicide Prevention Office at New Zealand's Ministry of Health where he is responsible for the Government's national strategy "Every Life Matters". Matthew is currently also a Director of Kea New Zealand, responsible for New Zealand's more than 1 million overseas citizens and residents and Chairman of the Workforce Development

Council for Health, Social and Community Services. Previous to that role he was Chairman of the Ministerial Advisory Board of the Ministry for Children, Oranga Tamariki, where he led a wholesale review of the Ministry that saw the implementation of the Future Direction Plan and the landmark report into the organisation's future "Te Kahu Aroha". Matthew is the former Chair of the National Maori Authority and Executive Director of the New Zealand Maori Council. He is of Irish, Ngai Te Rangi and Whanau a Apanui whakapapa and resides with his family in Auckland.