

Thinking Ahead.

Looking after the wellbeing of our customers and the sector in a changing world

Tuesday 8th November, 2022
Cordis, Tāmaki Makaurau Auckland, New Zealand

Sandy Morrison

Te Arawa and Tainui people.

Sandy is the Vision Mātauranga lead for the Deep South Science Challenge: Changing with our climate and a member of the Steering Group for the Antarctic Science Platform. She is the Acting Dean, Faculty of Māori and Indigenous Studies at the University of Waikato.

Her research and professional specialty focuses on climate change and impacts for Māori; adult education, and the application of Indigenous models in addressing developmental issues to improve livelihoods for Indigenous peoples and peoples of the Pacific.

Sandy is the Past President of ICAE, International Council for Adult Education and was inducted into the International Adult and Community Education Hall of Fame by the University of Oklahoma in 2009.