School Misconduct Discharge Application

You may be eligible to receive a discharge of your applicable private student loans if the school that you attended committed certain misconduct outlined within this application. This is called a School Misconduct Discharge.

If you believe you may qualify, please complete this application by providing as much detail as possible to support your relevant claim or claims and show the harm you experienced as a result of the school misconduct. Each application is subject to our review and discretion. A variety of criteria are used to determine eligibility, including, but not limited to, proof of resulting harm, sufficient documentation supporting your claim, date when events occurred or when you experienced harm, etc.

Important: this application requires supporting documentation that directly substantiates your claims (e.g., marketing materials, correspondence from the school, copy of court judgement, enrollment agreement, etc.). If documentation is not provided, your application can not be processed.

| Untruthful or misleading statements | The school or its representatives made untruthful or misleading statements while trying to convince you to enroll or to remain enrolled. You must show that this information was important to you when you decided to enroll or remain enrolled and caused you harm.
- The school’s conduct must relate to untruthful or misleading statements concerning one or more of the following areas:
  - Graduates’ employment outcomes (e.g., guarantees of employment or that you would earn a certain salary);
  - The school’s educational programs (e.g., whether completion of a program qualifies you for a specific license or certification; the number, availability, and qualifications of instructors; or your ability to transfer credits to another school);
  - The school’s financial charges (e.g., the school’s program cost or the availability or type of financial assistance available to you.) |
| Concealed, suppressed, or omitted certain information | The school concealed, suppressed, or omitted certain information that would have been important to your decision of whether to enroll or remain enrolled, and the concealment caused you harm. This includes conduct such as:
- A failure to provide important information about any of the three areas described above (e.g., graduates’ employment outcomes; the school’s educational programs; or the school’s financial charges); or
- A failure to tell you that certain factors, like a criminal record or the program not being authorized by the appropriate agency, would prevent you from meeting requirements for employment in the program’s field. |
| Aggressive and deceptive recruitment tactics | The school engaged in aggressive and deceptive recruitment tactics to convince you to enroll or to remain enrolled and caused you harm. This includes conduct such as:
- Demanding or pressuring you to enroll immediately, including by falsely claiming you would lose your opportunity to attend if you did not immediately enroll;
- Taking unreasonable advantage of your lack of knowledge about higher education or financial aid to pressure you to enroll or take out loans;
- Discouraging you prior to enrollment from discussing the decision to enroll with friends, family, or others;
- Using threatening or abusive language; or,
- Repeatedly contacting you if you asked not to be contacted further |
| Lawsuit against the school | In some circumstances, a lawsuit against a school may qualify. For the lawsuit to qualify, it must be based on the school’s misconduct related to your decision to enroll or remain enrolled. It must have been brought by you, a government agency, or, if it’s a class action lawsuit, have you included as a class member. In addition, it must have resulted in a favorable judgment (i.e., a judgment against the school and in favor of the plaintiff). |
| Failure to perform contractual obligations | A school’s failure to perform its obligations under a contract with you (such as in an enrollment agreement). To qualify, those obligations must have been important to you when you were deciding whether to enroll or remain enrolled and caused you harm. |

By completing this application, you are certifying, under penalty of perjury, that all the information provided is true and complete.

SECTION 4: SUPPORTING DOCUMENTATION (REQUIRED)

Please confirm you have supplied documentation supporting claim(s) made in Section 3.

☐ Yes, I have included supporting documentation in my application.

☐ No, I have not included supporting documentation in my application.

Please provide any additional detail needed to explain your supporting documentation:

SECTION 5: HARM

Above, you were required to explain how each specific type of misconduct by your school caused you harm. Please use the space below to explain how all the misconduct, taken together, caused you harm, and how the misconduct of the school has impacted your life more broadly.

- What harm did you experience as a result of the school’s statements, acts, or omissions? (For example: because your credits did not transfer you had to start over at a different school; you were unable to find a job when you graduated; you do not have the certification the school promised you would obtain and are now unable to enter your field of study.)

- How did the school’s statements, acts, or omissions cause you this harm? How has your life been impacted by this harm?
SECTION 6: OTHER REFUNDS, REMEDIES, LOAN REDUCTION OR TUITION RECOVERY ACTIONS

Have you recovered the amount of tuition or fees that you paid to your school or had your student loans forgiven? (For example, did you get a closed school loan discharge, borrower defense to repayment discharge or total and permanent disability discharge from the U.S. Department of Education? Did you get relief as part of a class-action lawsuit or other settlement?)

☐ Yes   ☐ No

If yes, please describe this other relief, including the amount of financial relief received, and attach any documentation about the relief, if available.

SECTION 7: FORBEARANCE AND STOPPED COLLECTIONS

If you are not currently in default, your private loans related to this discharge application will be put into forbearance while your application is under review.

If any of your student loans are in default, your loans will be put into a stopped collections status while your application is under review. “Stopped collections status” means that we will not attempt to collect on the defaulted loan(s) while your application is pending.

It’s important to understand that interest will continue to accumulate on all your student loans regardless of their status.

If your application is denied, you will be responsible for the unpaid accrued interest, which will not be capitalized (added to your Unpaid Principal) at the end of this forbearance period. While interest will not be capitalized at the end of this forbearance, any unpaid accrued interest may be capitalized at the end of a deferment or forbearance you request in the future (as permitted by law and your loan agreement). You can shorten or cancel this forbearance at any time.

You do not have to place your loans in forbearance or stopped collections to apply for this discharge. Instead, you may continue making payments on your loans.

Note: even though payment will not be due while in forbearance, you can choose to make payments to help lower your loan costs.

If you do not wish to have your loans placed into forbearance, meaning that you will need to continue making student loan payments while your application is being reviewed, please check the box below:

☐ I DO NOT wish to have my loans placed into forbearance or stopped collections.
SECTION 8: CERTIFICATION

By signing this attestation, I certify, under penalty of perjury, that: all of the information that I provided is true and complete.

Any person who knowingly makes a false statement or misrepresentation on this form or on any accompanying document is subject to penalties that may include fines, imprisonment, or both, under the U.S. Criminal Code. I sign this application under penalty of perjury.

I also agree to the following: to provide additional information that is reasonably available to me that will verify the accuracy of my completed attestation and to provide, upon request, testimony, a sworn statement, or other documentation reasonably available to me that demonstrates to the satisfaction of my servicer or its designee that I meet the qualifications for School Misconduct Discharge relief.

I also certify that I relied upon the misrepresentations and/or omissions identified in Section 3 above when enrolling at the school, and that the misrepresentations and/or omissions were material to my decision to enroll.

I also certify that I have not received a refund, tuition recovery, settlement, or other financial restitution to repay the loans that are the subject of this School Misconduct claim, except as otherwise disclosed in my application.

I agree to allow the school that is the subject to this School Misconduct Discharge application to provide my servicer with items from my student educational record relevant to this application.

I agree that Navient and their agents and contractors may contact me regarding my School Misconduct Discharge application or my loan(s) at any telephone number I provide now or in the future using automated dialing equipment or artificial or prerecorded voice or text messages.
