

Kia whakarite | Be prepared

Let your whānau and health care team know what matters most to you if your health changes

'In emergency services we tend to think "it'll never happen to me, I'm the rescuer." At the end of the day we plan for holidays and parties, but we don't tell people what we want if our health changes.'

Stuart Cook, paramedic and helicopter rescue crew member

Order your free resources now at:
myACP.org.nz

  @HQSCNZ