Kahalu'u – large (48" square), I made this Hawaiian quilt in celebration of our home in Kahalu'u, where our yard was filled with wonderful foliage, including banana trees and trumpet trees with delicately scented flowers. The hearts in the center of the quilt were to embrace our home in Hawaii. Made with Aloha by Ellen Godbey Carson. #111

Queens Flowers – medium (42” square), I made this Hawaiian quilt with a design inspired by the Queen’s flower vase motif in some of the Hawaiian quilts from the early 1900’s. It is intended to convey the dignity and beauty of our Hawaiian culture. 100% cotton, hand-stitched design.

Made with Aloha by Ellen Godbey Carson. #113

Scallops and Dolphins – medium (42” square), I made this Hawaiian quilt to celebrate the bounty and beauty of the ocean, with a large scallop motif and dolphins jumping in the ocean waves around the border. So lucky we live Hawaii, to be surrounded by the ocean and many things of beauty. 100% cotton, hand-stitched design. Made with Aloha by Ellen Godbey Carson. #114
