

THE ELECTRIC ROOM

AT STAR METALS

ATLANTA'S PREMIER ROOFTOP VENUE

The Electric Room at Star Metals showcases upscale features, social and collaborative spaces, state-of-the-art finishes, panoramic views, indoor/outdoor bar and a cohesive design sensibility that will surely transform your next event.

The venue is located in the center of West Midtown along the Howell Mill Road corridor, with a vibrant mix of dining, shopping, and cultural and entertainment venues. Notable neighbors include Westside Provisions District; Georgia Tech; Northside Tavern; the Westside Cultural Arts Center; the Goat Farm Arts Center; and the newly developed Westside Paper.

Our interior space, with its 16-foot ceiling and polished concrete floors, boasts a refined upscale interior with warm urban charm. The outdoor rooftop patio provides striking views of Atlanta's Midtown skyline as well as beautiful sunsets to the west.

The Electric Room has entertained private parties, birthdays, weddings, corporate functions, seminars, photoshoots, movies and is awaiting whatever else you can come up with. We can't wait to share this amazing space with you!

The image shows an outdoor terrace with a wooden deck. In the foreground, there are two white, conical high-top tables, each surrounded by four black wicker chairs with light-colored frames. In the background, there is a bar area with a dark wooden counter and a wall of greenery. Above the bar, there is a large glass structure with a dark frame and a grid pattern. The terrace is decorated with several white, bowl-shaped hanging planters containing green plants. The overall atmosphere is modern and sophisticated.
