

Continuum of Organizational Identity Development

View racial and cultural differences as deficits

Tolerant of racial and cultural differences

View racial and cultural differences as assets

Monocultural	Passive/Club	Pre-Transformation	Identity Change	New Identity	Multicultural & Anti-racist
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>✓ White dominant culture</li> <li>✓ Unchallenged racist acts</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>✓ Some resist the ways things have been</li> <li>✓ Many deny that things need to change</li> <li>✓ Many blame courageous conversations for causing tension</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>✓ Struggle to find focus, trying to do too much, too fast, too hard</li> <li>✓ Hiring of more POC based on willingness to assimilate</li> <li>✓ Lack of time or resources to institute change</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>✓ Cultural responsiveness is part of the organization's strategic plan</li> <li>✓ Living into strategic questions about equity and belonging</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>✓ Evaluation and assessment take power, privilege, and oppression into consideration</li> <li>✓ Transformation embedded into planning and decisions</li> <li>✓ Wins are celebrated</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>✓ Comfortable with being uncomfortable</li> <li>✓ Power sharing/co-creation/inclusive innovation</li> <li>✓ Ongoing culturally relevant professional development</li> <li>✓ In reciprocal relationship with community/society</li> </ul>

Monocultural Mindset

Multicultural Mindset

Example DEI+B Organizational Identity Profile

Monocultural

Passive Club

Pre-Transformation

Transformation

New Identity

Multicultural

