

Six reasons why Two Terms Is Enough!

Chairman Bryan Christ ran on a platform of bringing the Montgomery County Republican Party together, but after two terms, the Party is more divided and dysfunctional than ever before. Democrats are working every day to turn Texas blue. If we lose Montgomery County, we lose Texas!

2

Chairman Refuses to Cooperate in State Party Mediation

The report states that division in the party is due to a "failure of leadership by Chair Christ, who "seemed uninterested in solving the problem."

3

Chairman Breaks Texas Election Code, Party Rules & Bylaws

After the failed mediation attempt and further violations of party rules and bylaws, the County Executive Committee (CEC) voted to censure Chairman Christ.

Chairman Closes Historic Party Headquarters

Chairman Christ abruptly closed the longtime Party Headquarters and removed or donated its contents without notifying the majority of the CEC. He then began taking donations and held a fundraiser for his Montgomery County Republican Club PAC, claiming his new office space was the Party Headquarters.

We can't keep electing the same person over and over, and expect anything to change.

Montgomery County Republicans need a strong Conservative County Chairman with the leadership experience to bring the party together. Recognizing the seriousness of the situation, Attorney General Ken Paxton and Republican Party of Texas Chairman Matt Rinaldi, along with many other Conservative Republicans, have endorsed Gwen Withrow for Montgomery County Chair. To learn more, visit mctxgop.org/upcoming-elections.
