

Precinct Chair Spotlight

Richard VonRoble, Precinct 80

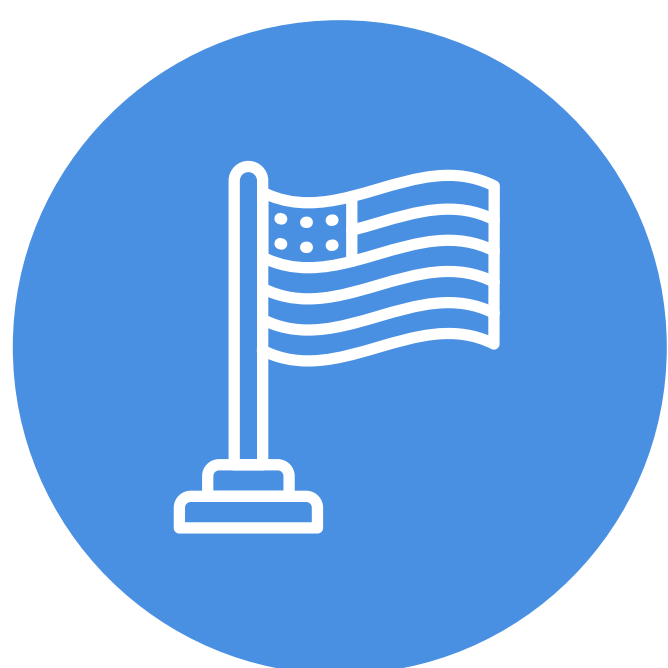

What do you enjoy most about being a Precinct Chair?

Learning that there are so many people like us who put God, Family, and Country first. Now we have to put that in practice to save our Country from the bottom up.

RICHARD VONROBLE
Precinct 80 Chair

What are some ways you've served in Montgomery County?

I've served as an election worker in my precinct and am now getting involved with local utility districts and school boards to see what's going on at our public schools.

Tell us about your family and interests.

I met my wife, Han, in Vietnam. We have two kids, Thao and Huy. We know we need to defend our freedoms from inside threats, not far away ghosts. I love racquetball, tennis, and biking. My son enjoys soccer and my daughter is learning volleyball.
