

Precinct Chair Spotlight

Clarence Lewis, Precinct 10

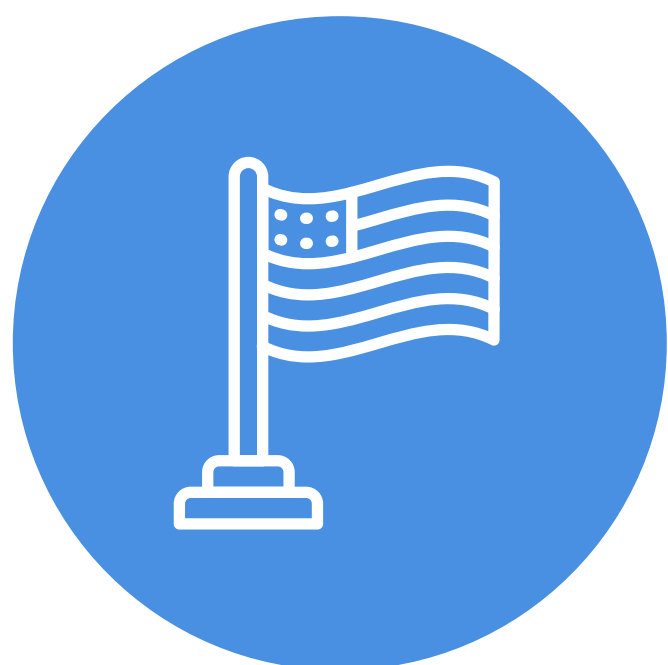

What do you enjoy most about being a Precinct Chair?

I am a fifth generation resident of Montgomery County and enjoy serving the community. My focus is on training the next generation of Conservative Activists and educating voters with unbiased and factual information.

CLARENCE LEWIS, JR.
Precinct 10 Chair

What are some ways you've served in Montgomery County?

I have been a candidate in a few local races and have supported other candidates' campaigns. I attend events that build relationships between community and elected officials, and work to build relationships with other like-minded Christian Conservatives.

Tell us about your family and interests.

My wife, Janice, is also from Conroe. We have been married for 35 years, have two daughters, and two granddaughters. We enjoy serving in our church, spending time with our family, and getting to know more people in Montgomery County.
