

Submission Guidelines for High Schools Together for Change

Thank you for your interest in submitting artwork for "High Schools Together for Change," an exhibition dedicated to showcasing artwork from high school students. We believe that art can be a powerful tool for expression, connection, and personal growth, and we are excited to provide a platform for students to share their voices through creativity.

1. Theme: Submissions should align with themes of resilience, self-expression, personal growth, and hope. We welcome a broad range of interpretations, perspectives, and mediums that reflect the diverse experiences and emotions of young artists.
2. Eligibility: This event is open to all high school students from area high schools. We encourage participation from anyone interested in exploring these themes through their artwork.
3. Age Requirement: Participants must be high school students.
4. Accepted Mediums: We accept a variety of visual art mediums, including but not limited to paintings, drawings, photography, digital art, sculptures, poetry, spoken word, and mixed media. Feel free to experiment with different materials to convey your story.
5. Submission Deadline: Submissions are due March 7, 2025, and must be received on time to be accepted.
6. Submission Process: Artists should submit their information through the submission form provided by their school or through the Google form at www.wvcommunitychangeteam.com. Please ensure that all required information is provided accurately.
7. Physical Submissions: Physical artwork should be turned in to the designated staff member at your respective school by March 7, 2025. Staff will coordinate collecting and delivering the artwork to Lincoln High School.
8. Artist Statement (Optional): Along with your artwork, you may submit a brief artist statement that provides information about your piece and shares your inspiration or the emotions reflected in your work.
9. Anonymity: Artists have the option to remain anonymous or use an alternate name. If you choose to do so, please let us know in your submission.
10. Event Attendance: Artists do not need to attend the event but are encouraged to join us if possible.
11. Content Appropriateness: We reserve the right to deny any artwork not appropriate for the event. Selection will be based on relevance to the theme of "High Schools Together for Change."
12. Event Details: "High Schools Together for Change" will take place at Lincoln High School on October 29th. The event is child-friendly and open to the community.
13. Contact Information Sharing: Artists have the option to share their contact information with attendees who are interested in the artist's work. Please note the artwork is NOT for sale at this event.

Thank you for sharing your art and contributing to the collective narrative of resilience and self-expression. If you have any questions or need further information, please do not hesitate to contact the Community Change Team at contact@wvcommunitychangeteam.com.
