Early Learning Action Alliance Director

Children's Alliance seeks a director for the Early Learning Action Alliance (ELAA), tasked with facilitating the work of ELAA coalition members as they build a brighter and more equitable future for Washington's youngest children. The best candidate for this position will bring a demonstrated commitment to dismantling racist and anti-Black policies and practices as well as expertise in change management, leadership for racial equity, long-term planning, and facilitation.

Reporting to the Deputy Executive Director of Children's Alliance and accountable to the ELAA Steering and Executive Committees, the ELAA Director will help lead ELAA into an era of growth and transformation. Building on a foundation of 12 years of powerful advocacy, the ELAA Director will coordinate the coalition's work for bold, visionary public policies.

About ELAA and Children’s Alliance

ELAA is a broad coalition of more than 50 organizations representing a diverse array of Washington nonprofits, professional associations, businesses, and industries. ELAA is united by the belief that all children in Washington state deserve to have the opportunities and support they need in their first five years of life to be prepared for school and a bright future.

Children's Alliance strives to place racial justice at the heart of Washington's laws and budget priorities so that every child can thrive. Children's Alliance's work is grounded in the fundamental belief that a spark of genius exists in every child. But for too many of our children, racism and poverty create barriers that prevent them from unlocking their vast potential. Our vision is that all of Washington's children will have an abundance of what they need to grow up to be the people they dream of becoming. We believe our mission will only succeed if we unapologetically, actively, and effectively fight to end racism and anti-Blackness.

We dedicate time in staff and board meetings to better understand how racism shows up in the child-serving systems we seek to change, and in our own internal policies and practices. This work is challenging; it calls for each of us to be vulnerable and to take risks. We strive to handle the challenges with care and compassion and learn from them together. For us, this work is central to our mission.
