- You should consider that you may not have access to the money you invest for an indefinite period of time.
- Because you will be unable to sell your shares (except pursuant to any periodic Fund repurchases), you may be unable to reduce your exposure in any market downturn.
- The Fund may pay distributions from sources other than earnings which may affect future distributions.
- The amount of distributions, if any, are uncertain and at the discretion of the Fund’s board of trustees.
- An investment in our shares is not suitable for you if you need short-term liquidity.
- Our distributions may be funded from unlimited amounts of offering proceeds or borrowings, which may constitute a return of capital and reduce the amount of capital available to us for investment. Any capital returned to stockholders through distributions will be distributed after payment of fees and expenses.
- Our distributions to stockholders may be funded in significant part from the reimbursement of certain expenses, including through the waiver of certain investment advisory fees, that will be subject to repayment to our investment adviser. Significant portions of these distributions may not be based on our investment performance and such waivers and reimbursements may not continue in the future. The repayment of any amounts owed will reduce our net investment income, which may result in reduced future distributions to which you would otherwise be entitled.
