

Do you know the difference between the IL Fraternal Order of Police and the FOP Labor Council?

If you answered: These are two separate and distinct Organizations!
You are correct, see the differences below:

Illinois State Lodge

Membership
Full-time or 30+ hours Law Enforcement Officers

Illinois State Lodge Board of Trustees

Fraternalism
Member National FOP Organization – Local Lodges Chartered through State Lodge
Legislative Services
Member and Community Assistance/CIST Support
Civil, Criminal & Administrative Legal Services through National FOP Legal Plan
Newsletter
WEB Site
Training & Education
Biennial Conference
Annual Per Capita (Dues)
App

FOP Labor Council

Membership
All Bargaining Unit Members

FOP Labor Council Executive Board

Labor/Collective Bargaining
Independent Organization – Local Unit Certified by State Labor Board
Legislative Services
Contract Negotiation
Contract Administration
Administrative Discipline/Critical Incident
Representation
Newsletter
WEB Site
Training & Education
Annual Meeting
Monthly Dues
App

You can be represented by the FOP Labor Council and NOT be a member of the IL Fraternal Order of Police.