WHAT DOES Concord Federal Credit Union (CFCU) DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why?
Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?
The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This data can include:

- Social Security number, employer information and any other personal data required to be collected under U.S. regulations
- Account balances, transactions, transaction history, payment history
- Credit history, credit scores

When you are no longer our customer, we continue to share your information as described in this notice.

How?
All financial companies need to share customers' personal data to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers' personal information; the reasons Concord Federal Credit Union chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

Additional Information

Personal Data We Collect and Store
We collect your personally identifying data such as your name, address, date of birth, phone numbers and government-issued identification when you provide it to us to open accounts or sign up for products and services such as online banking and funds transfers. We also collect data from you when you contact us by telephone or email to discuss your accounts and services. When you log in to online banking, we collect the IP address assigned to your computer by your internet service provider or the device ID of your mobile phone. We do use cookies* to enhance your online banking experience. We do not knowingly collect data from minors under the age of 16 when visiting our website. However, if you make us aware that this has occurred, we will remove the personal data from our systems. Concord Federal Credit Union does not sell your personal data. We store your data for the period of time your account is open and we continue to store your data once your account is closed in order to comply with U.S. federal and state regulations, generally for 7 years.

* Cookies are small files that are stored on your device to keep track of your visit to our website and to save your preferences.

Processing and Usage of Personal Data
We share your personal data with third-party service providers to provide some of the products and services you sign up for. We only share the data necessary to provide the service. We share your loan payment history with various credit bureaus; to law enforcement when required as part of an investigation and to respond to a court order. We use your data to verify your identity when communicating with you and when you log in to access your account information via online banking.

Data Protection
We secure and protect your data by maintaining physical, electronic and procedural safeguards including firewalls, encryption, passwords and authentication technologies. We will only permit authorized employees who are trained in the proper handling of customer information to have access to your data. Our third-party data processors are required to secure and protect your personal data and are prohibited from sharing your data. Our third-party data processors are subject to ongoing performance monitoring and an annual review of their IT security and data protection practices.

Accessing and Updating Your Personal Data
Keeping your personal data current is very important. You may review and update or correct your personal data via online banking or by contacting a member services representative.

Linking to Third-Party Websites
Our website may provide links to third-party websites that are owned and operated by other companies. When you click on a link to visit a third-party website you will be subject to that website’s privacy and security practices which may differ from ours. You should familiarize yourself with the privacy policies, terms of use and security practices of the third-party website before providing any personal data on that website.
